Douglas Luery Weds Patricia Joan Patrick At Dunsford Church

Dunsford United Church, decorated with standards of white snapdragons 'mums and ferns, was the setting of a lovely winter wedding on February 20th, when Patricia Joan Patrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Patrick, exchanged wedding vows with Douglas Luery, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Luery, of Stirling. Rev. E. E. Pugsley officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of white French lace and net over satin. The wedding top was fashioned with a small Peter Pan collar, long pointed sleeves, and a full skirt falling to a ballerina hemline. Her fingertip veil was held by a coronet headpiece of seed pearls, and she carried pink sweet-heart roses and white hyacinth petals.

Mrs. John Stark, of Ottawa, matron of honour, was gowned in a waltz length dress of claret and green tulle, and carried a bouquet of white and pink roses. Miss Arlene Patrick, sister of the bride, as bridesmaid, was similarly gowned. Both carried yellow 'mums and Princess Elizabeth roses with matching headpieces.

Mr. Robert Luery, of Stirling, was groomsmen and ushers were Mr. John Stark, of Ottawa, and Mr. Douglas Bastedo, of Stirling. Before the ceremony and during the signing of the register, Miss Marilyn Taylor sang, "The Lord's Prayer" and "Because."

The reception was held at the New Royal Hotel in Lindsay, where the bride's mother received in a navy dress, matching hat with pink accessories and corsage of pink carnations and hyacinth petals. Assisting her was the groom's mother, gowned in a grey two-piece dress with black accessories and wearing a corsage of sweet-heart roses and red gerberas.

Following the reception the bride and groom left on a honeymoon after which they will reside in Toronto. Under a grey wool coat the bride wore a turquoise princess style dress with white accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

Guests were in attendance from Stirling, Elmvale, Ringwood, Toronto, Belleville, Warkworth, Bobcagegon and Ottawa.

SKATING CARNIVAL SATURDAY NIGHT

After postponement owing to the mild weather, The Annual Skating Carnival sponsored by the Stirling Legion, has been rescheduled for Saturday night, March 6.

The programme will include a Broom Ball game between the Rotary and Legion, as well as an exhibition Pee Wee hockey game between Belleville and Stirling. In addition there will be the customary costume competitions for which excellent prizes will be offered. There is also the big draw for special prizes for both children and adults.

With favourable weather for making ice promised, everything should be in readiness for an outstanding programme and the support of the community is urged.

Members of the Legion are doing a splendid community service in keeping the skating rink operating in the face of discouragements and the support of the entire community is needed to make this work possible. We commend this project to our readers and urge everyone — old and young — to patronize the Carnival Saturday night, March 6, in Stirling Arena.

TRUCK CRASHES THROUGH WALL OF MILL ST. HOME

Considerable property damage resulted when Bird's delivery truck, driven by Ken Myers, sideswiped Fred McDonnell's car and went out of control crashing through the front wall of Mrs. L. Spry's residence, Mill St., about 11:45 yesterday morning.

Myers was proceeding east when McDonnell is alleged to have backed out from the curb on the north side of the street. The Bird truck struck the McDonnell car's left rear fender and veered across the sidewalk and into the centre of the house. The force of the impact put a gaping hole into the living room and shoved the front wall, which is of brick construction, out of alignment. Fortunately, Mrs. Spry, who frequently sits by her front window, was working in another part of the house and escaped injury. Considerable fender and front end damage was done to the truck. Meyers, the driver, escaped injury.

Chief Constable Eggleton investigated the accident.

Citizens Urged To Support Financial Appeal By Stirling Boy Scouts

Campaign Opens Tomorrow and Continues Until Saturday March 13th Next

Once a year the Boy Scout Provincial Headquarters allows each Boy Scout Association to campaign to this town for financial aid to carry on the work to keep Scouting growing. In Stirling there is one of the finest Cub Packs and Scout Troop in the district; but it takes money to keep things running. They have an active group committee with Mr. David Duffin as chairman and the money raised is looked after by them.

Last year the Group Committee helped to send boys to Ottawa to the Canadian Jamboree. There is also a quota to be sent into headquarters each year to defray operations there. They are now planning for boys who will attend the World Jamboree, to be held in 1955, where over 15,000 boys will be in attendance.

As the local group grows, they will have to look for their own camping grounds, which will take considerable money. As the Cubs and Scouts are self-supporting for their own needs by collecting paper, selling cards and apple day, the Group Committee has no way of raising money except by this campaign. We ask the people of Stirling to give generously when the canvasser calls on you; remember — Scouting pays; but Scouting also costs.

In Stirling we have as good leaders as you will find, who do not mind giving their time to teach these boys to become good citizens of the future; but they cannot do it alone, you must help. In 1950 there were 40 boys in Cubs and Scouts, now there are 45 Cubs and 24 Scouts. Four boys are Queen Scouts and two boys have their Bushman Throng.

Membership cards can be obtained from any member of the Group Committee, David Duffin, X. P. Mayhew, Joe Fellon, Ross Hermiston and Bob Patterson.

From six o'clock on the ladies were kept busy attending to the wants of the hungry people, but judging by the many fine compliments given on the excellence of the viands and the cuisine, their efforts were amply rewarded. The event was very successful and the ladies are deeply grateful to all who assisted in any way.

NOCTURNE'S NARRATOR

"Nocturne" has come of age! This year marks the twenty-first anniversary of the Thursday evening show on Trans-Canada, featuring poetry readings by CBC producer J. Frank Willis and background music by organist Quentin Maclean. Frank Willis' deep and resonant voice was first heard in the series in 1933 when the program came from a Halifax ballroom close to the sounds of the sea and was called "Atlantic Nocturne." Later, when he was transferred to Toronto he dropped the "Atlantic" out of the title simply, some say, because he couldn't find any waves of sufficient proportion, or seagulls with the aptitude to cry on cue.

Who Is Being Sent?

In the Christian adventure there is a place for everyone. Everyone has to learn by doing. We must be aware of our part in the Young People's group. Jesus has a part for each one of us to play, and is depending on us.

What are we sent for? We make our contribution in Young People's groups but must not substitute it for church, which is the household of faith and we as young people can give our enthusiasm to the older members, take our place in the choir or perhaps a Sunday School teacher. In your own community as young people, uphold high standards. We are not just citizens of Canada but of the world and we should know what is going on in other parts of the world. This can be done in our Missionary programmes.

St. Paul's--Carmel News Items

(By Rev. A. E. Baker, U.E.)

World Day of Prayer

All over the Christian world the "World Day of Prayer" will be observed next Friday. In Stirling the meeting will be held in St. John's Anglican Church. This important service should receive the support of every woman in the community. Plan to make this one of your Lenten-side devotions.

Councillor Simthrim

We congratulate Councillor Smithrim (of Trenton, on his stand re the reported offer or acceptance of a gift from brewery interests by the Boy Scouts of Trenton. The effrontery of these interests in presuming to tender such support is a new low in public morals.

We have never heard of an anonymous gift being made by the "boozie" interests. On the contrary they appear to embrace every opportunity and pretext to promote consumption. It would be more to the point for these profit seeking interests to send a gift to the government to reimburse it for the votes from public funds to care for the victims of their products. For the attempted rehabilitation of these unfortunates in public institutions operating exclusively for that purpose. We understand $200,000 will be required from the public treasury this year.

Young Adults

A rally of young adults will convene in King Street United Church, Trenton, Sunday, March 14th, at 2:00 p.m. All young adults will be welcomed. They will be evening dinner guests of the young people of Grace and King Street Churches, Trenton.

The Teen Age

Agnes E. Meyer in her March "Atlantic" says at present the average school teacher is expected to be a policeman, a psychiatrist, a public health expert, a doctor, a clergyman, a night club entertainer, and a parent. All this we demand from one underpaid public servant because the nation lacks the wisdom and the will power to face its social problems with honest, effective and comprehensive insight.

The gap between the I.Q.'s in any class should not be so wide that it cannot be bridged even by the most expert teacher. Otherwise both extremes suffer and we encourage delinquency in all of them. The bright students lose interest in school because their abilities are not challenged and the slow learners acquire a spirit of defeatism, insecurity and inferiority.

Some educators maintain that the maladjusted and normal children, the slow learners and the bright pupils must be kept together. As a result the educational process is keyed to the lowest common denominator. When we penalize our best students in this way, we run the risk of destroying human character. If we do not give our strong children the opportunity to grow stronger, if we put all our emphasis upon shielding the weak, the unstable, the incompetent, we shall soon be not a welfare state, but a hospital state.

Gideons

Mr. W. A. Watson, Secretary of the Gideons, Belleville, has graciously acknowledged $49.70, being the offering received at the special service held in St. Paul's Church, Stirling, on Sunday, February 14th.

Lay Association

Rally

On March 12th one of a series of Conference gatherings sponsored by the Lay Association will be held in the College Hill Church, beginning with a banquet at 6:30 p.m. This will be followed by an Evangelistic service to be addressed by Rev. Harry A. Mellow, chairman of the Conference Committee on Evangelism for the Bay of Quinte Conference. This rally includes both men and women and embraces Stirling, Rawdon, Sidney, Foxboro and other fields adjacent to and including the City of Belleville. Tickets may be secured from Mr.

Ernest Carlisle or Mr. Orno Sharp, Lent

Ash Wednesday was observed by special services yesterday in Christendom. The season will last until Easter, 40 days excluding Sundays. In the St. Paul's--Carmel Churches every member, adherent and friend is invited to make self-denial gifts each day for the special projects of these churches. The Lenten Self Denial offering envelopes were mailed earlier in the week. Please return envelope No. 1 next Sunday. Mr. R. A. Patterson is Treasurer of these funds at St. Paul's and Miss Marion Carlisle at Carmel. Gifts of $500 at each appointment can be made by the co-operation of everyone. Self Denial is a call to Self Discipline.

We Rejoice

It has come to our notice that several citizens of Stirling and district are waging a successful fight against the "drink" habit. They are commended not only for their stand but their forthright demonstration to others that "it can be done." We have not heard of any women joining in this stand though we are well aware that a few are in peril.

The United Church of Canada has embarked on a crusade which will be supported by all Christians to promote total abstinence from the use of alcoholic beverages.

A Little Sermon

The following comes from a recent church folder:

What kind of a church would my church be if all the members were just like me?

How many services would there have been in my church last year if all the members had been away from church whenever I was?

How much money would have been given for the support of my church and for missions if everyone gave the same proportion of his income as I did?

What would our Christian fellowship have been like if everybody complained, criticized, and found fault as much as I did?

What would have happened to our Sunday School and other organizations if everyone made excuses and held back the way I did?

If everyone did as I did, perhaps my church would be better now than it is—but perhaps it would be worse. Only I know the answer.

Friend

The following sign meets a stranger in one of our churches:

You enter this church—Not as a stranger, but as a guest of God. He is your Heavenly Father. Come, then, with joy in your heart and thanks on your lips into His presence, offering Him your love and service. Be grateful to the strong and loyal men who in the name of Jesus Christ builded this place of worship, and to all who have beautified it and hallowed it with their prayers and praises. Bless His blessing on those who love this home of faith as the inspiration of their labour, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Spirit, and may that blessing rest on you, both on your going out and on your coming in.

Rev. Floyd Honey

The special Centennial Year guest last Sunday, Rev. Floyd Honey, presented a global view of the outlook for Overseas Missions. Sparks from his anvil included the following:

The United Church sent its first Missionary to the Copper Belt, Northern Rhodesia, last year.

The domination of the east by the west is now a thing of the past.

The east sees the moral bankruptcy of the west in two world wars and the threat of a third.

There is a social and economic revolution against hunger and poverty. Two-thirds of the world's inhabitants are hungry.

The whole world has become a Mission Field. There are no longer the divisions such as the word foreigner denoted in the past.

The World Council of Churches, organized in 1948 is a vehicle of Christian hope, faith and unity.

The United Church needs 100 new missionaries now. Young men and young women are urged to heed the call of the church to service.

STIRLING CREAMERY

Hello Homemakers! Enthusiasm is a wonderful asset for anyone to possess and when a homemaker is enthusiastic about food, the meals she prepares are really masterpieces. Besides knowing how to measure and mix, one should acquire the habit of exploring new cooking pathways. Homemakers who do this will serve attractive meals with a "subtle something more" flavour, garnish or accomplishment.

We have no doubt the honey cake in today's column resulted from a "flight of fancy" because it includes both honey and orange juice, both of which are unusual ingredients in cakes. The icing, too, is rather interesting with raisins as well as nuts in it. Finally, this cake keeps well, so it can be made a day or two ahead of expected guests.

The second cake recipe we prepared when eggs were plentiful away back last November. It was placed on a pie plate, iced, wrapped in wax paper then snugly wrapped with foil and sealed with locker tape. It was then placed in the home freezer. Two weeks later, the festive turkey was accidentally placed on top of it. However, it was neither squashed or broken when the cake was taken from freezer in the middle of January. Now we know that quick freezing for delicate cakes is worthwhile since the cake will thaw out in less than an hour — and guests may stay longer for a sample of one of your cakes.

Honey Orange Cake

2 cups sifted cake flour
2 1/4 tps. baking powder
1 tsp. salt
1/2 cup shortening
1/2 cup sugar
2-3 cup honey
2 egg yolks
1/2 cup orange juice
2 egg whites, beaten

Sift flour, baking powder and salt. Blend shortening and sugar, then mix in honey. Add egg yolks and beat well. Add alternately the sifted dry ingredients and orange juice. Fold in beaten egg white. Pour batter into an 8 inch cake pan that has been lined on the bottom with wax paper and lightly greased. Bake in preheated electric oven of 350 degs. for about 35 mins.

Sultana Nut Frosting: Combine 1 egg white, 1/2 cup granulated sugar, 1 tsp. corn syrup, 2 1/2 tps. water and a pinch of salt in top of double boiler. Beat with electric beater for 3 mins. Remove from heat and continue beating until icing will stand in peaks (another 3 minutes). Stir in 1/2 tsp. maple flavoring, 1-3 cup chopped sultana raisins and 1-3 cup chopped nuts. Swirl on cook cake. Use the back of a silver spoon to design frosting.

Orange Angel Cake

1/2 cup sifted cake flour
1 cup fine sugar
7-8 cup egg whites (6 or 7)
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. cream of tartar
1 tsp. orange flavoring
3 tps. minced peel

Sift measured flour 4 times and set aside on wax paper. Then sift measured sugar 4 times and leave in sifter. Beat measured egg whites until frothy, add salt and cream of tartar, then beat until stiff, not dry. Sift sugar over egg whites, about a quarter at a time, folding lightly after each addition. Fold in orange flavoring and finely minced peel. Return flour to sifter and sift flour in lightly as you continue to fold after each addition and only until flour has disappeared. Pour into an ungreased tube pan (8 by 3). Bake in preheated electric oven of 300 degs. for 1 1/2 hours. Invert cake over edges of 2 open casseroles until cold. Loosen with a knife and shake carefully from pan.

Mocha Icing: Beat 1-3 cup butter until very creamy, add 1 egg yolk and beat in 1 1/2 cups icing sugar and 1 tps. cocoa. Beat in strong cold coffee, drop by drop, until desired consistency. Drop spoonfuls on top of cake then with a spatula dipped in hot water, and wiped dry, stroke the icing down the sides of cake.

THE QUESTION BOX

Mrs. O. D. asks: What is rose water and to what foods should it be added?

Answer: Rose water is a mild rose essence, usually an imitation flavouring that is coloured pink. It may be used in fruit cakes, meringue cakes or macaroons, also in almond paste or frostings.

Mrs. G. M. asks: What is a Watermelon Cake?

Answer: It is a plain layer cake with raspberry jam filling and iced with green tinted butter icing. (It is sometimes called St. Patrick's Cake, too.)

Miss A. M. asks: The turntable for the electric mixer no longer turns the bowl while it is operating although it has been cleaned around the edge thoroughly.

Answer: Almost every turn table may be lifted out. Perhaps you should let sewing machine oil seep along the edge for a day or so then try to remove it. Rub the stem with steel wool and apply vaseline occasionally to keep it operating.

The Physician's Place

The office of Medicine is but to tune the curious harp of man's body and to reduce it to harmony. The physician seeks to make sick folks well, and to keep them so.

This demands co-operation. Only with help of the ailing person can the doctor be expected to bring about speedy, gentle and enduring restoration of health; only with the interest and help of healthy persons can the doctor make progress toward blotting out disease.

To ascertain what is wrong with an ailing person is no light undertaking. A medical man's success in diagnosis depends upon his knowledge of nature's response to various insults and injuries, and upon his ability to evaluate the evidence of disease and interpret it correctly. He forms his judgment not only on the basis of what the patient says, but under guidance of the whole network of signs and symptoms after a complete survey.

Symptoms are never imaginary. If a man says he has a headache, he is either truthful or not; he is not imagining he has a headache. But the knowledge he conveys may be inaccurate because it is coloured by something he has been doing. He may have "doctored" himself, thus changing the trend and extent of his symptoms. Knowledge of this not uncommon practice leads physicians to move carefully; they sometimes exasperate patients by refusing to give them an easy and quick remedy, and by requiring them to come back for a second consultation.

It may be necessary for the physician to call upon some of his colleagues, especially trained in various aspects of medicine. Rapid advances in medical research have produced a vast and complex science, one which is too immense and complicated to be grasped and applied in its entirety by any one individual. There are, said an article in The Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, twenty-three different classifications of specialists and sub-specialists certified by the various American Medical Specialty Boards. In addition, the team devoted to the conservation of human life includes the dentist, the physical therapist, the dietitian, the psychologist, and others specially trained.

One way to live longer is by having regular medical check-ups by a physician who knows us and our medical history. Has it occurred to men to think that the more favourable life expectancy of women may be due in some part to their greater readiness to seek and to follow medical advice?

WHAT OTHERS SAY! ON SLEEPING IN

It is a bit more difficult to sleep in late these mornings, as the nights shorten. Over in the meteorological office they seem to believe that night shortens more at one end than the other, or some such mix-up; but the sum of it to one extent on sleeping in of a morning is that here comes the sun again and in a great rush too. The trick is to turn over if one is on one's back, or half over if one is on one's side. These manoeuvres of course require effort, but are nothing compared to the effort of looking ahead the night before and having a bandanna ready at the bedside to tie about one's eyes. Besides, the knot may trouble the renewed slumber with dreams of medieval torture. And who in cold blood has the effrontery to ask around the house the night before has anyone a bandanna so he may sleep in late on the morrow? So just turning over is a far better way.

Rewards are immediate for one who should get up; but doesn't plan to get up. For one thing, once the effort to turn over has been made, morning at work-time is the easiest of all occasions to get to sleep. It is the natural sleeping time. Drifting off, one may feel that the world is well lost, and considering how matters are with the world, this in itself is a gain. Or one may feel the heady exaltation of being a rebel, a successful rebel like Cromwell or Washington.

After all that, a man may then arise and, by skimping on some matutinal chores, arrive at work on time, or nearly, with the charm of adventure still upon him. —The Printed Word.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

CAN SPRING WHEAT BE SUCCESSFULLY GROWN IN EASTERN CANADA?

Spring wheat was one of the first and most important crops grown by the early settlers when the country which now comprises Eastern Canada was discovered. De Monts planted this crop at Annapolis in 1605, while Louis Herbert reports abundant wheat crops on his farm in Quebec City in 1635.

The Red Fife wheat which gave Canada its first reputation as a wheat producing nation, as well as the world famous Marquis wheat were originated and developed in Ontario. All the Eastern provinces provided the wheat for their own bread making purposes and numerous small flour or grist mills were to be found in each province. With the expansion of the wheat areas in the West, and the increase in population, the larger, better equipped and more efficient flour mills took over the manufacture of flour and many of the small mills closed down which lowered the demand for local wheat. During the past twenty years, the wheat acreage in Eastern Canada dropped from 204,700 acres in 1934 to 54,400 acres by 1953. This decline started previous to World War II when large stocks of wheat were available in the West and prices were so low, that Eastern farmers found it cheaper to bring in grain for feed purposes, than to grow it.

There are occasions however when it pays to raise wheat in preference to other crops. One good illustration of this is in the potato growing areas where heavy applications of commercial fertilizer cause severe lodging to such crops as oats and barley when sown on these soils following potatoes. It has been found that a good variety of spring wheat will stand up well under these conditions and produce excellent yields. The new Acadia wheat with its short, stiff, straw could be used to advantage in this case.

Mr. Carl Fraser, Cereal Crops Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, reports on a survey just completed on how Acadia wheat behaved under general farm conditions in Eastern Canada during the past season. Yields as high as 45 to 50 bushels per acre recorded with an average for the 100 farmers reporting on their yields of 25.75 bushels per acre. This is very good considering that the average yield for the past 5 years for spring wheat in Canada was 16.4 bushels and even in the bumper year of 1952, the yield was only 26.3 bushels per acre. In other words Eastern Canada can successfully grow spring wheat and a few acres on all Eastern farms would go a long way to feeding the average farm poultry flock and in providing a nice cash crop which is easy to handle.

U.S. EXPERT TO JUDGE AT BEEF BULL SALE ON MARCH 9th and 10th

W. F. Watson, Ontario Livestock Commissioner, announced that Robert Williams, Great Oaks Stock Farm, Rochester, Michigan, will officiate as judge at the forthcoming Ontario Bull Show and Sale which is to be held in the Sheep and Swine Arena, Royal Winter Fair Building, Toronto, on March 9th and 10th.

Some 363 of Ontario's finest beef bull stock will be consigned to the sale providing persons interested in beef cattle with an outstanding opportunity to select their next herd sire from the high quality animals offered.

Altogether some 173 breeders are shipping 363 animals to the sale, entries consisting of 126 Herefords, 49 Aberdeen-Angus, and 188 Shorthorns. Herefords and Aberdeen-Angus will be shown and sold on Tuesday, March 9th and the Shorthorns on Wednesday, March 10th. Shows will commence at 8 a.m. and sales at 11 a.m. each day.

All bulls will be examined by a culling committee and any that are considered unsuitable will be removed from the sale. Every Ontario resident who buys a bull will be eligible for a premium equal to one-third of the purchase price but not exceeding $150.00.

Breeders in York County lead in the number of animals consigned to the sale with 24 head. Wellington County is second with 18 entries; Huron 13; Elgin 11; Lambton 10; Middlesex 9, with the remainder being made up by other counties.

Department Officers No Longer Issue Summer Hunting Licenses

Hunters are reminded that Summer Licenses to hunt ground hog, crows and starlings this year will be sold through regular license issuers in the district and most of Southern Ontario. Commonly known as a ground hog license, sales were formerly handled by the Department's Conservation Officers. Supplies for the coming season will be going forward to issuers in the near future.

Spring Seed Fairs Provide Opportunity To Buy Good Seed

Reports reaching the Crops Branch of the Ontario Department of Agriculture indicate that competition will be keen at Spring Seed Shows this year. Growers in all parts of the province will have the opportunity of competing with winners at the Royal Winter Fair and the International Grain and Hay Show. Exhibits will be somewhat different however, since each sample of grain must consist of a bushel thus eliminating much of the hand preparation which is part of most exhibits at the larger shows.

Another feature of Spring Shows not common to the larger exhibitions, is that the seed displayed at the Spring Show represents a quantity that may be purchased. Visitors can arrange to buy seeds of the variety of their choice of the quality shown at the fair.

Some 26 such events are booked in Ontario with the Central Ontario Spring Show at Peterborough on March 16th to 19th for this district.

Mrs. Thos. Bata Dies In New York

Marie Bata, widow of the man who founded the world's largest shoe empire, died Friday in New York. Her son, Thomas J. Bata, of Batavia, Ont., has been called "shoe king of the world."

Mrs. Bata, who was Viennese-born, was the daughter of a high government official. She married Thomas Bata who built shoe factories all over the world, because he was agnostic at the fact that half the world's population was barefoot.

For the past two years she had been living in Hamilton, Bermuda, and had come to New York for medical treatment.

Those Dangerous Level Crossings

Railroad crossings continue to take their toll of lives in Ontario, and in most cases the poor unfortunates who have been hit by trains, whether living or dead, are invariably held to blame.

A writer in the Toronto Globe and Mail, who is moved by these accidents — and aren't we all — observes that the style and coloring of the present cross-arms, marking the crossings, have not changed in the past seventy years, except to fade out, and they are much too close to the tracks anyway.

He contends that there should be two warning signs for every crossing, one being several hundred feet away, and that the cross-arms and posts should be liberally painted with luminous paint, and kept clean by the sectionmen.

No doubt crossing warnings "liberally painted with luminous paint" would be a godsend to motorists for night driving, but they would not be any better than the present signs for day driving.

In our humble opinion all warnings of the proximity of railroad tracks should be painted a brilliant red, and to help cut down the incidence of such accidents, the highways department should augment present signs by painting on the pavement or on additional signs words, "Danger! Go Slow." Or it might change the highway act and make it compulsory for every car to come to a stop a safe distance from the track, as the buses do.

Modern automobiles travel at such speed, cover so much ground in such a short time, that signs made and used in the days of slow speed and little travel are wholly inadequate for these days of so many cars and so much hustle and bustle.

The railway companies and the highways department should get together on this important matter. After all the onus for so many fatalities at level crossings cannot all be placed on the motorists.

It may not be generally known that the dominion government already contributes a million dollars a year toward the cost of crossing protection. But one would never know that, in this part of the country at least, where the signs are the same today as they always were, and wholly inadequate for safe motoring. —Harry M. Moore in Egansville Leader.

SOIL MANAGEMENT BOOK

A new handbook on soil management and use of fertilizers has been published by the Ontario Advisory Fertilizer Board. It carries natural color photographs and useful information about soil testing, cultural practices, and gives sensible guidance for farmers in choosing the kinds and amounts of fertilizers on the various crops commonly grown.

CONSERVATION NEWS!

Major Improvements Planned At White Lake Hatchery

Improvements at the White Lake Rearing Ponds this year will go a long way towards making the station one of the most up-to-date hatchery establishments in this part of the province.

Starting with two small rearing ponds for bass, years ago, the station was considerably enlarged in 1948 and now comprises seven ponds, two residences, garage, fish food storage and ice house. The project this year, being carried out by the Department of Public Works, will include a new Storehouse-Workshop building with office accommodation, lighting arrangement around the ponds and buildings, replacement of the old water supply pipe from White Lake and possibly an artificial ice plant to ensure adequate supplies during the distribution period.

There is still considerable maintenance work, particularly on nets and equipment to be completed before trout distribution starts early in April, according to Hatchery Manager A. M. Snider. As soon as lakes are free of ice, plantings of yearling speckled trout will get underway and be completed by the end of May if possible. Any delay would seriously interfere with bass propagation which requires use of the ponds now occupied by speckled and kalamloops trout. Adult large and small mouth bass breeding stock have to be in the ponds early in June prior to the spawning period. Bass eggs hatch quickly and young fry and fingerlings will be ready for planting during July and August.

Lands and Forests Officials expect the distribution job will be speeded up this year with the addition of an aerating system being installed on one of the two trucks. The aerator is similar to the one designed at the Normandale Hatchery, and by increasing the oxygen content in fish tanks, makes it possible to carry considerably more fish on each load. In addition to a great saving in time, expense, particularly on long trips should be materially reduced.

Deer Hunters Apprehended

Some excellent detective work on the part of Conservation Officers E. W. Ferguson and F. MacDonald resulted in the apprehension of two Belleville residents for shooting a deer out of season a few days ago. Invaluable assistance was given by Provincial Constable Gordon Stout and the Belleville Detachment in obtaining evidence which led to the arrest.

According to the report, the two men were well familiar with one of the winter deer yards where the animals take refuge when snow is deep and had little difficulty making a quick kill. The carcass was dressed and removed by car to Belleville. Prompt action in tracing the car, permitted the officers to locate the venison in the two homes within a matter of a few hours and charges were laid. In addition to losing the venison which was turned over to the Hastings County Home, the men lost a valuable rifle and face fines of $50.00 to $200.00 plus court costs.

Though it is often asserted that venison is not very palatable during the winter when deer are feeding on cedar and juniper, it cannot be too obnoxious judging from the amount of patrol work still required by Fish and Wildlife Staff. Individuals who can't confine their hunting to the proper open season and choose to invade these refuges during the winter months, should expect little sympathy either from the courts or general public.

His Worship The Mayor

The title of "mayor" has ancient and honorable history. The French form of the title is maire; in Germany, it is burgemeister; in Italy, podestà; in Spain, alcalde; and in Scotland, provost. Originally, the title had much wider significance than it has today.

Among the nations which arose on the ruins of the Roman Empire and who made use of Latin as their official and legal language, mayor and the Low Latin molrissa were convenient terms to describe important officials of both sexes who had the superintendence of others. Thus it was that the male officer who governed the King's household was known as mayor domus. In the households of the Frankish Kings, the mayor domus, who was also variously known as the governor, rector, moderator or praefector palati, was so great an officer that, frequently, he ended by evicting his master, a custom which tradition has preserved even unto these times! Beside the mayor domus (the major domo), there were other officers who were maiores, for instance: the mayor equorum (mayor of the horse) and the mayor cubiculari (mayor of the bed-chamber.)

A title which could be applied so easily and in so many circumstances was certain to be widely used. The post-Augustine miorinus, "one of the larger kind" was the origin of the medieval Spanish merinus, who, in Castilian, is the merino, a judicial and administrative officer of the King. The gregum merinus was the superintendent of the flocks of the corporation of sheep-owners called the mesta.

when the sheep, and then the wool, have come to be known as merino — a word identical in origin with the municipal title of mayor.

In England, the chief officers of the boroughs down to the 11th century were appointed reeves. The mayor appears in the 12th century at the period when municipal life was developing rapidly. He was elected head of the town government. London obtained a mayor in 1191, and, by the middle of the 13th century, the practice was general.

The mayors of certain cities in the British Isles have acquired by prescription the prefix of "Lord." The title "right honorable" is a distinction conferred only upon the Lord Mayors of London, York, Belfast and in Australia, of Melbourne, Sydney and Adelaide. The title is likewise accorded the Lord Provost of Edinburgh and Glasgow.

In the United States, it is the custom to accord the prefix "Honorable" to the mayors of cities and it is usual to address them as "Your Honor." In Canada, the traditional British salutation prevails, namely "Your Worship."

The mark of respect thus accorded the chief magistrates of our cities and towns derives from the mellowed pages of history and serves to remind us of the unbroken link between the municipal governments of today and their early counterparts of long centuries ago.

Turf experts say the best time for seeding lawns in Canada is the last two weeks of August or the first two weeks in September when moisture and temperature conditions are usually ideal.

Chamber of Commerce Dinner Meeting Was Largely Attended

Messrs. W. H. (Bill) and Dave Young, of Hamilton Cotton Co., Guest Speakers

A dinner meeting of the Stirling Chamber of Commerce was held in the Community Hall on Thursday night last, with over eight in attendance. Members of Laurel Rebekah Lodge, No. 211, served a delicious turkey dinner and many fine compliments were heard on the excellence of the cuisine.

Following the dinner and the toast to the Queen, President E. D. Ketcheson welcomed the members and visitors and introduced the head table guests, D. Patterson, Secretary; Geo. Lyons, Joe Valchar and Jos. Michalk, of the Elaine Footwear Company; C. A. Baker, Manager of Trent Cotton Co., Trenton; W. H. Young and Dave Young, directors of Hamilton Cotton Co.; Reeve R. K. West and Don Rodgers.

Commended Elaine Footwear

President Ketcheson commented on the great benefit Elaine Footwear, Stirling's main industry, had been to the community and complimented the firm on its progress. In December, 1950, the firm opened here with 12 employees and now employs 55 to 60. Production has increased accordingly from 300 to 400 pairs to 1,000 pairs per day and shipment is made to firms from coast to coast.

A civic welcome to the honoured guests was given by Reeve R. K. West, followed by a round of community singing led by Russell Pyear, with Fred Houchin at the piano.

X. P. Mayhew delighted the gathering with two vocal selections with guitar accompaniment, after which H. R. Tompkins, past president of the Chamber, introduced Mr. C. A. Baker, Manager of Trent Cotton Company.

Speaks On Textile Industry

Introduced by Mr. Baker, Mr. W. H. (Bill) Young, Superintendent of the mill at Hamilton, outlined the history of Hamilton Cotton, which was started by his grandfather in 1880, and had continued in the family until 1929 when it was thrown open to the public and listed on the Toronto Stock Exchange. There were three plants, Hamilton, Dundas and Trenton with assets of ten million dollars and between 800 and 1000 employees. The average wage rate was the highest in the textile industry with the Company leading the industry in fringe benefits, such as hospitalization insurance and profit-sharing pension plan. The plants were unionized.

The depression in the textile industry at present, according to the speaker, was entirely due to the dumping of foreign textiles on the local market. Taking a long range view, the speaker foresaw brighter times for the textile industry. Hamilton was a centre of heavy industry, and its accompanying smoke and soot were handicaps to the textile industry. Consequently the Company was thinking of leaving Hamilton and had decided to settle in Stirling, where the manufacture of narrow fabrics from one to six inches in width, would be carried out.

Stirling Plant

Mr. David Young stated the proposed new factory in Stirling would cover one-third of an acre or 14,000 square feet, and would be on a one-floor plan. The machinery used would be absolutely new and about 50 employees would be engaged in shift work. The payroll would run about $100,000 a year. The same working conditions would prevail as in the other plants. The start of construction of the new plant was dependent on business conditions, stated the speaker, who felt the industry would be an asset to this Village.

The thanks of the Chamber to the guest speakers and all who had a part in making the evening a success were ably voiced by Vice-President Don Rodgers.

Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. George Hedgesman wish to announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Catherine Louise to David William Little, son of H. E. Little, of Belleville. Marriage to take place early in April.

Crocus In Bloom

Crocus have been blooming in the flower garden of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Eggleton, Mill Street, for the past week. Just another sign that Spring is about due.

In Hospital

Friends of Mrs. H. C. Secker will regret to learn that she is a patient in the Kingston General Hospital, where she was taken early Tuesday morning.

Pass Music Exams

Miss Catherine Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson, of Madoc, successfully passed her Grade VIII Piano exam. Miss Robinson also obtained her Grade II Theory Certificate, which entitles her to the Grade VIII Piano Diploma.

Miss Rosemary Webb in the recent written exam obtained 75 marks (Honours) in the Grade IV Harmony. Both are pupils of Miss G. E. Pitman, A.T.C.L.

Injures Heel In Fall

Ernest Cain, of town, suffered a crushed heel while at work at the Bakelite Plant in Belleville on Thursday morning last. He was ascending a ladder when he slipped on the third round from the bottom and fell to the floor landing on his heel. He was taken to Belleville General Hospital for attention and returned to his home on Wednesday. The injured member is in a cast and it will be some time before he is able to resume work again.

Fire In Restaurant

Firemen were summoned to extinguish a fire in the Chinese restaurant, Mill Street, about 11.30 o'clock Sunday night. The blaze is said to have originated in some wood piled behind the stove and spread to a partition, which was burned through. Heavy smoke hampered the firefighters.

St. John's Ladies' Guild

The Ladies' Guild of St. John's Anglican Church, Stirling, met in the Parish Hall, Tuesday, March 9th. After the usual business, the ladies enjoyed a delightful talk by Mrs. Percy MacMullen whose subject was "St. Patrick's Day" and "The Month of March." Master Bruce Woodbeck favoured with a solo and a contest, "Members of St. John's Church" was most entertaining.

A delicious lunch was served by the conveners Mrs. M. Tanager and Mrs. T. Tanner.

Mrs. Frank Wood Bereaved of Mother

The sympathy of the community goes to Mrs. Frank Wood, Ridge Road, in the death of her mother, Mrs. Henrietta Long, who died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. J. Ferguson, Cannifton Road, Belleville, Saturday morning, after a lengthy illness.

Born in Madoc Township, she was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. David Embury and was in her 88th year. She had been a resident of the Cannifton area for the past five years. Prior to that she had lived in Marmora Township.

Long, who died in 1952, she is survived by three daughters: Mrs. Frank (Martha) Woods, of Stirling; Mrs. William (Myrtle) Arthur, of Belleville; Mrs. Robert (Keitha) Ferguson, of Belleville, and one son, Harold, also of Belleville. A sister, Mrs. Manley (Lily) Post, is a resident of Eldorado. Also surviving are 15 grandchildren and 18 great grandchildren.

The deceased was a member of the United Church and an active worker in the Woman's Auxiliary.

Juveniles Eliminate Bracebridge To Reach Finals In Juvenile "C"

Lost Second Game of Series 5-4 In Two Periods of Overtime — Round Score 8 To 7

In a real display of fight and determination Stirling Juveniles came from behind in Belleville Arena on Monday night to edge Bracebridge 8-7 on the round score in the home and home series, although they dropped the game 4-2. Twice in Monday's game Bracebridge took the lead on the round score and twice the locals came back to tie it up and Gerry McGee potted the winner with less than two minutes to go. Stirling will now meet the winner of the Port Dover - Kincardine series in the O.M.H.A. finals.

Fans are unanimous in the opinion that it was the most thrilling game in years and the locals are assured of a packed house when they meet the finalists, probably the end of next week.

First Period Scoreless

Both teams opened up at a fast pace and the fans were treated to thrills galore as first one team then the other threatened but both goalies came up with some smart saves to thwart the attackers.

Sanders opened the scoring early in the second period when he took Davis' pass to beat the Stirling goalie. Knapton, on a three-way foray with Scott and Parks evaded the count three minutes later, but Johnny Ellis, one of the Bracebridge stars scored twice before the period ended to give the visitors a 3-1 lead.

Jim Ellis took brother John's pass to make the score 4-1 early in the third but Milton McGee on a pass from Bob Palmer and G. McGee, got that one back to tie the round score with seven minutes left to play.

Early in the first overtime period, John Ellis got his third goal of the night to give Bracebridge the lead again, but one minute later Freddie McMurray got the equalizer on a smart play when standing with his back to the net he took a pass from Hadley and flipped the puck through his legs to beat the visitors' goalie.

The winning tally came at 8.10 in the second overtime period when Gerry McGee whistled a drive from about fifteen feet out to catch the corner of the net. Although Bracebridge yanked their goalie and put on a sustained drive they were unable to beat the

REGULAR SESSION VILLAGE COUNCIL

A meeting of Stirling Village Council took place Monday afternoon from 4 to 6 p.m., with Reeve R. K. West and Councillors E. G. Bailey, H. Philp, Guy Bradshaw and C. A. Wells in attendance.

J. V. Holt addressed Council relative to the purchase of culverts, etc., but no action was taken.

A request from the Stirling Boy Scouts for use of the Community Hall for their annual banquet on Thursday, March 11th, was granted.

A communication from G. C. Moon, sec-treasurer of the Centre Hastings High School Area asking if Council favoured accepting the special assessment of the Area, (the same as last year) or the County Assessment, resulted in a lengthy discussion. In the opinion of Clerk-Treasurer Mallory, there was little or no difference so far as cost to the taxpayers was concerned and Council decided to accept the County Assessment.

Insurance on the property recently purchased by Council from Mrs. W. Barker, was placed with Mr. E. D. Ketcheson.

The following accounts were presented for payment:

R. K. West, $80; Thos. Spry, $205.75; Hutton Hardware, $33.62; Thos. Spry, Library, $59.40; F. Stapley, $5.00; Paul Stewart, $4.50; Glenn Morrow, $45.00; Chas. ## River Valley W.I. Euchre Party

The eighth euchre party sponsored by River Valley W.I. was held at the school house Friday evening, March 5th with nine tables in play. Guests were in attendance from Uniondale, Stirling and Mount Pleasant.

The prizes were donated by Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Bedford and the awards were as follows: Ladies high, Mrs. Percy MacMullen; ladies' second, Mrs. Jack Sager; men's high, Edward Heasman; men's second, R. E. Gould.

Refreshments were served and "Happy Birthday" sung in honour of Mr. Bedford.

Stirling defence before the final bell.

For the locals it would be unfair to pick any stars; every player gave everything he had in a winning cause. Knapton, M. McGee, F. McMurray and Gerry McGee were the scorers while Hermiston along with Montgomery, Anderson and McCrory formed a strong defence. Hermiston deserves a special accolade as he played the full 80 minutes and was undoubtedly the best man on the ice. Brady, in the locals' net, turned in a scintillating effort.

The Ellis brothers, Saunders and Claremont along with the goalie were standouts for Bracebridge.

Stirling Defeats Bracebridge 4-2 In First Game

Stirling Juveniles took a 2-goal lead in the O.M.H.A. semi-finals at Bracebridge on Friday night when they defeated the Muskoka champions 4-2 in the first game.

Bracebridge scored both their goals in the first half of the first period. The Stirling defence, led by Hermonston and backed by the fine goalkeeping of Brady, kept the Bracebridge forwards off the score sheet for the rest of the game.

The Stirling youngsters roared from behind to narrow the margin to 2-1 in the first period, and scored the only goal of the second heat.

They kept up their fine offensive play in the third heat, whipping home two goals without a return to grab the honours.

Claremont scored for the homesters after a minute of play and Saunders made it two unassisted halfway through the period. McMurray whittled the margin to a goal with a fine solo effort at the 15-minute mark.

McMurray tied the count after eight minutes of play in the second period taking Hadley's pass to beat the Bracebridge goalie. Early in the third period Stirling went one up when Knapton slammed home Parks' pass to score and Hadley fired the insurance goal after eleven minutes on a neat unassisted effort.

Nine penalties were handed out by the officials four to Stirling.

McMurray and Hadley stood out for the winners with Hermonston doing a fine job on the defence. The whole Stirling team played good hockey.

The Unknown Teacher

The American Legion Auxiliary has published the following under the above title.

"I sing the praise of the Unknown Teacher . . . Famous educators plan new systems of pedagogy, but it is the Unknown Teacher who delivers and guides the young.

"For him no trumpets blare, no chariots wait, no golden decorations are decreed . . . Patient in his duty, he quickens the indolent, encourages the eager, and steadies the unstable. He communicates his own joy in learning and shares with boys and girls the best treasures of his mind. He lights many candles which in later years will shine back to cheer him. This is his reward.

"Knowledge may be gained from books but the love of knowledge is transmitted only by personal contact. No one has deserved better of the Republic than the Unknown Teacher. No one is more worthy to be enrolled in a democratic aristocracy — king of himself and servant of mankind." — Henry Van Dyke.

In conjunction with the Woman's Crusade for National Security a substantial prize is given in the U.S.A. for the best article on "Why I Teach." The 1953 award was won by W. A. Cate Jr. of White River Junction, Vermont. His article is here reproduced:

Why I Teach

I am a teacher. I could have no proud designation.

Though other fields have beckoned, and the siren song of greater wealth has run in my ears, I remain a teacher.

For me teaching is not a job, not even a profession.

Teaching is my vocation.

I teach because I like young people. Their ranging minds and restless spirits demand the best I have, and in giving it I remain young in heart.

I teach because today is compounded of yesterdays. The accumulated wisdom of the past is the bedrock upon which will be built a brighter tomorrow.

I teach because our form of government requires an enlightened citizenry. Public education is the keystone of our nation's security.

I teach because I have an obligation, as a citizen of a free country, to lead young people to prize our freedoms and to accept the responsibilities they entail.

I teach because no other profession can offer the satisfactions that teaching brings. To see the dawning light of comprehension break over the face of a child is recompense beyond price.

For these reasons I teach.

Lent

Ecclesiastically Lent is known as the Quadragesimal Fast. This fast lasts for 40 days. It is usually devoted to penitence and abstinence. In the church of today for many this means the intensification of the Devotional life with prayer and heart searching. Confession of sin and the benefits of God's pardoning love. It is also associated with self denial as a co-equivalent in many persons of fasting with resultant gifts being given to the work of the church.

Lent — A Period

For Spiritual Growth

The spiritual values which accrue to the devout worshipper during the coming weeks of Lent when we follow our Lord into the deepest redemptive experiences of His life depend largely upon the attitudes with which this Holy Season is approached. Traditionally, Lent has been devoted to an emphasis upon the grace of self denial. Members of the Church have rightly abstained from indulging in certain pleasures during this period. At the close of the Season, they have laid upon the altar of the Church their gifts as an expression of self-denying devotion. These disciplines should be accepted by every follower of the Christ as he goes with Him into the sufferings of His Passion.

At St. Paul's and Carmel Churches every member and friend will join with millions of Christians under the World Council of Churches in laying their gifts upon the altar. Some gifts are like the widow's mite and others will be for very large amounts. Gifts should be linked with the prayer life of the givers. Men in increasing numbers are finding a thrill in giving. Giving time, talent, training and treasure (quite apart from the causes to be served) provides a recreation that easily "tops" all others.

Quarter Day

Sunday, March 14th will be observed as Quarter Day at St. Paul's. The fellowship of the Lord's Table is open to all who love the Lord. At Carmel the observance will be held in connection with the dedication of the furnishings of the renovated church on Sunday, March 28th at 2.30 p.m., when the Chairman of the Belleville Presbytery will officiate.

Persons desiring to make gifts of Bibles, Hymn Books or other furnishings as well as all who desire to have a part in this venture of faith by the congregation at Carmel will find an abiding satisfaction.

May 9th Mother's Day

It is not too soon to plan a special Endowment Fund gift in loving memory of mother. Gifts of love to mother or in her sainted memory will be made by thousands this year who have a heart for "Mother."

A bulletin entitled "World Outreach" issued by the United Church Overseas Mission Board advises that gifts to the Missionary and Maintenance Fund are classified as General, Designated, Supergift or Transmission. These are (1) General — all gifts for the local objective of the M and M Fund; (2) Designated — gifts for a special project within the budget of the Overseas Board. These gifts do not mean any additional money for the Board; (3) Supergifts — gifts over and above the local objective. These are turned over to the Board by the Treasury Department and are over and above their budget allocation; (4) Transmission gifts — are small gifts for some particular Missionary. These are outside the Missionary and Maintenance budget. An official receipt covering such gifts will be issued for income tax purposes.

Dusty Bibles

Seeing an unused Bible lying about his home a small boy asked his mother whose book it was. "It is God's book," she said. "Well," replied the boy, "don't you think we'd better return it? Nobody in this family seems to read it!"

First Choice

Your place in the service of Jesus Christ is determined by your first choices. Does your fraternal society, your play life, your personal comfort, your personal freedom, your business interests, your appetite, your recreation, your club or movie come before your Church or your God or indeed your home? After all our choices indicate our classification in the Divine Directory — the Book of Life.

Kingston Cathedral

A recent visitor to Kingston attending St. George's Cathedral noted for the first time in an Anglican Church (1) The visible direction of the choir; (2) The abbreviation of Psalm 137. It was also noted that the order of service listed collection not offering. Tickets for Martin Luther film and folders were scattered in all pews.

A printed announcement indicated that Rev. H. C. Secker would be one of the special Lenten Friday preachers. This in an honour not only to the Rector of St. John's, but to Stirling Village.

A noteworthy on the order of service read: "Each for all and all for each." "Seats at all services are Free and unappropriated."

"The Cathedral depends on free-will offerings to meet expenses. Your contribution is needed. Effective members give systematically through envelopes." We like that term "Effective members." Would that every member of every church was an effective member.

Bible Sunday

On March 7th, 1804 the British and Foreign Bible Society was organized. It was prompted by the vain search of Mary Jones a little Welsh girl who saved her money for six years and walked sixteen miles to purchase a Bible only to find none left for sale.

Special services were held at St. Paul's and Carmel last Sunday to mark this anniversary day in the 150th year of Jubilee of the Bible Society. Since it began the Society has distributed over six hundred million copies of the Word of God. It has also made translations in whole or part in over 1,000 languages or dialects.

Gifts for this Jubilee Year may be given to the Society by so marking the red pocket of your envelope.

Birthdays

Birthday greetings were extended to Heather Bowman at St. Paul's and to Frank Bailey Jr. at Carmel last Sunday.

Miss Cora Bailey Speaks On Teaching Low IQ Pupils

Miss Cora Bailey, formerly of Harold, Ont., Principal of Parkhill School, was guest speaker for the meeting of Peterborough and District Association for Retarded Children, held in the Green Room of the YMCA, Peterborough, Thursday evening.

Miss Bailey spoke of her experiences as teacher of the junior opportunity class of Prince of Wales School, a position she held for four years, prior to her appointment as Principal of Parkhill.

She pointed out that the problems presented today call for an understanding of children by the school teachers. "This understanding of the child's needs, growth and development is the common bond between parents and teachers. The needs change continuously. Each child's needs and potentialities are different. In this, heredity plays a part and while potentialities cannot be changed, environment can and should be encouraged. As no two children learn at the same rate, differences must be recognized and the reasons diagnosed wherever possible. Certain patterns of growth must be learned and understood by parents and teacher," she said.

Miss Bailey explained the Ontario Intelligence Test, given when children enter this special class which will determine their mental age. Reasons for retardation may be any of the following conditions: defective eyesight, hearing, speech, insecure home conditions, illness, accidents or birth injuries. The behaviour of the child shows his social development.

In these children of the lower IQ type, most of their activities must come through their hands, therefore hand crafts are developed as a sure means of learning how to get along and co-operate with others. In learning to handle various tools for the making of practical articles, the child is given an opportunity to develop self expression and self confidence. There are no tests or competition in this class room. Each child is recognized

So much that's new ... and completely proved!

You'll find that the Dodge Royal V-8 brings you the finest of new car features for 1954 . . . a combination of the "dome-shaped" combustion chamber 150 h.p. Red Ram engine, famous for power and economy . . . and PowerFlite, the smoothest and most powerful of fully automatic transmissions. No other car offers you this great performance combination at so low a price.

You'll be frankly amazed at the control you have over this Dodge Royal—how it clings to curves, and holds the roughest roads with smooth-riding ease.

You'll like its beauty and luxury, too. New chrome treatment increases that longer, lower look . . . colourful two-tone interiors have wide, restful chair-high seats . . . floors are covered by rich, deep wool-type carpeting. Twelve new body colours, in lustrous baked enamel can be adapted into 48 two-tone colour combinations.

A road-test will convince you that the Dodge Royal offers you more of the finer qualities you want—unequaled at the price—plus traditional Dodge Dependability.

POWERFLITE fully automatic transmission is standard on Dodge Royal V-8's. It lets you move in one effortless motion from starting to highway speeds—without lifting your foot from the accelerator. Its built-in fluid torque drive gives extra acceleration for fast, oil-cushioned starts.

FULL POWER STEERING takes all the hard work out of parking and steering. It's on the job all the time from the moment you start your engine. Optional at moderate cost on all 1954 Dodge cars.

Hello Homemakers! There should never be humdrum Lenten meals! To convince ourselves we made a list of main course dishes of fish, eggs, cheese and vegetables casseroles and were surprised at the variety, for both leisurely Sunday menus as well as busy day meals. It is also amazing how many in-expensive dishes can be good eating, Lenten specials and family dishes for anytime-of-the-year.

TAKE A TIP

Main course dishes for Lent:
1. Lima Beans with Mushroom Sauce,
Vegetarian Baked Beans, Kidney

- Beef Loaf with Syrup.
2. Welsh Rarebit, Cheese Fondue, Cheese Souffle, Baked Cheese and Tomatoes, Soup and Cheese Custard.
3. Spanish Rice, Curried Egg Rice, Mushroom Cream Rice, Creole Rice, Macaroni and Cheese, Spaghetti and Tomatoes, Noodles and Tuna.
4. Haddie Cornmeal Roll, Seafood Mousse, Codfish Souffle, Tuna Supreme, Devilled Crabmeat, Salmon Leaf, Sardines with Celery Sauce, Baked White Fish, Creamed Scallops, Fish Steaks, Scalloped Fish (Turbot, Pike, etc.)

5. Creamed sliced egg and shrimp, Scrambled eggs, Devilled eggs, Stuff egg with Fish Paste and Yolks, Poached eggs, Shirred eggs with Celery Soup, Omelets (with herbs, jelly, mushrooms or cheese),

Rice and Tomato Casserole

- 1 cup dry rice
- 1 tbs. fat
- 1 tin canned tomatoes (2 cups)
- 1/2 cup grated cheese
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 2 tbs. chopped pimento
- 4 slices bacon, cooked and chopped

Boil the rice in salted water until tender. Combine with remaining ingredients. Pour into casserole and bake at 425 degrees until top is lightly browned, about 12 minutes. To make best use of oven heat: Bake 2 pie plates of scones or tea biscuits alongside casserole.

Salmon Nest

- 2 cups mashed potatoes
- 1/2 cup grated cheese
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 cup medium cream sauce
- 1 lb. steamed salmon
- 1/2 cup buttered crumbs

Line greased casserole with fluffy mashed potatoes. Add cheese and egg yolk to cream sauce. Pour half of cream sauce over potatoes. Add boned salmon which has been steamed or boiled in cheesecloth. Top with more cream sauce and the buttered crumbs. Bake at 350 degs. in electric oven for 30 mins. or until lightly browned. To make the best use of oven heat: Bake Salmon Nest and Harvard Beets (from canned beets) on third shelf from bottom of oven. On shelf above bake cupcakes for cottage pudding and oven-steamed prunes.

Cheese Souffle

- 3 cup fat
  - 3 cup flour
  - 1 tsp. salt
  - 1 1/2 cups heated milk
  - 1 pkg. cream (nippy) cheese
  - Paprika
  - 6 eggs, separated
- Make a cream sauce in double boiler by stirring the flour and seasonings into the melted fat and adding the milk, stirring constantly. When thick and smooth, add grated or sliced cheese and allow to melt. Pour over the beaten egg yolks. Mix well. Then pour slowly into beaten egg white, blending carefully until a light fluffy mass is formed. Bake in a large casserole or a small roasting pan at 300 degrees in electric oven for 1 1/2 hours. Fakes enough for six. Serve at once.

To make best use of oven heat: Bake souffle and sliced carrots in covered casserole (containing 1/2 inch water). On shelf above bake apples.

THE QUESTION BOX

Miss M. P. asks: What is a simple sure way to make Hollandaise sauce and is it served hot or cold?

Answer: Serve Hollandaise sauce hot with hot dishes and cold with chilled foods. The easy way to make this sauce is in a double boiler. Melt 3 tbs. butter in a double boiler in 2 tbs. flour and 1/2 tsp. salt. Gradually stir in 1/2 cup milk (or equal parts of evaporated milk and water). Cook, stirring constantly for 8 minutes. Pour sauce over one slightly beaten egg, then return sauce to pan. Cook 2 minutes and beat in 1/2 cup mayonnaise and a pinch of cayenne. Serve immediately over Baked Fish.

Mr. T. B. asks: For a recipe served in camps called Bean Pie.

Answer: Perhaps this inexpensive, quick-cooking recipe for Bean Pie is similar to camp-style:

Line an 8 inch pie plate with pastry and press edge with fork. In a saucepan heat 1 can (15 oz.) baked beans, 1/2 tsp. dry mustard, dash of salt, few grains cayenne, and 1 cup milk. Stir to combine ingredients over electric element turned medium. When hot, add 2 beaten eggs. Pour bean mixture into pastry lined pie plate. Bake for ten minutes in preheated oven of 450 degs. then lower the indicator to 350 degs. for about 20 mins. Cut in wedges and serve hot with chili sauce, along with cole slaw.

Annual Report By Secretary Stirling I.O.D.E.

Following is the report of the Secretary:

Annual Report

It is my duty and privilege as your secretary for 1953 to present the Thirtieth Annual Report of the Hon. J. R. Cooke Chapter I.O.D.E.

Ten monthly meetings were held in the members' homes, including the annual meeting which was preceded by a banquet at the local hotel. One took the form of a sewing and quilting meeting.

The Treasurer's report showed a balance of $320.17 to begin the year. Donations of $25 to Holland for flood relief; $10 to Canadian Red Cross and $10 to the cigarette fund in Korea were made during the year as well as $10 to each of the four regular I.O.D.E. funds.

We shall remember this year because our beloved Dowager Queen Mary passed away just a few weeks before the Coronation of her granddaughter, Queen Elizabeth. How proud we are to be the possessor of the beautiful carpet she made and gave to us as a symbol of her effort for her country. A donation was made toward a Coronation gift for Queen Elizabeth which was a television set to be given to the Hospital for Sick Children.

The membership this year was increased to forty-five and Marjorie Bateman, Laura Lee, Barbara Stapley, Jean Cooke, Isabelle Armstrong and Hildegard Wilkins were welcomed into the Order. We deeply regret the loss of a faithful and valuable member, Marjorie Clements, who finds she can no longer be with us.

The annual Spinners' Dance held in January was again a success to begin the year's achievements, and netted the chapter $80. A well attended bridge and euchre party held at the home of Miriam West in April brought proceeds amounting to $26, and later on in May a Tulip Tea and Home Baking Sale at the home of Pearl Fraser, profited us $35.75.

The films, "Royal Wedding" and "Royal Tour" were shown in the local theatre to school children and the general public under our sponsorship and collections amounted to $19.20 over expenses. The local school council also sent a cheque for $10. in appreciation of the opportunity to view these films.

This year the annual bingo was held in the Community Hall and proved more successful than ever with proceeds about $90.

Greeting cards sold among our members brought $15.24 and $1. donation was received from each member instead of a home baking sale usually held during the summer months.

The activities of the year ended in January with a Telephone Bridge Party held in the homes of Marjorie Bateman, Marie West, and Pearl Fraser from which the Chapter realized $26.17.

A special project to commemorate Coronation Year was the placing of fifty chairs in the auditorium of the new Stirling Public School at a cost of $275.

Two Tag Days were held, $42.35 was collected for the Navy League in June and $227.57 for the Salvation Army Red Shield Appeal in May.

Thirteen parcels, including a special one at Christmas were sent to our needy family in England at a cost of $82.00.

Two boxes were packed for shipment overseas. The September packing included: 2 pr. mitts; 8 pr. socks; 3 doz. diapers; 1 pr. pyjamas; 2 slips; 2 night gowns; 1 boy's shirt; 1 large quilt and 24 nursery bags; 1 boy's sweater; 1 baby set; 2 pr. children's socks; 3 pr. men's socks; 3 boy's shirts; 3 dresses; 5 doz. diapers were included in the January shipment. Special thanks to Mrs. Wright for knitting socks. Ten boxes sent to soldiers in Korea cost about $30, and ten dozen diapers donated by the members went to Austria in February to help alleviate the suffering there.

Some members attended a gathering in Peterborough to hear Mrs. Walton speak on the aims and activities of the I.O.D.E. and seventeen attended the Annual Dinner meeting of Marmora Chapter Feb. 19th.

Under educational work the annual scholarship of $5 to pupil having the highest standing in Grade 8 was increased to $10, and was won by Eleanor Stapley. A new award of $5, was also presented to each pupil attaining an average mark of 75 per cent or over in the same Grade and those receiving these awards of merit were Dale Geen, Mary Ellen Long, Marvin Tanner and Patricia Donohoe.

Two very interesting illustrated talks were heard by the members this year, Mrs. Bonisteel taking us through the work camps of Europe with her, under the supervision of the United Council of Churches and Mrs. Campbell, of Belleville taking us on her journey through the British Isles.

Calendars were placed in both the Public and High Schools and the members subscribed 100 per cent to Echoes magazine, a copy of which is placed in the Stirling Library and our adopted School in Halliburton.

At this time I would like to extend my personal thanks to our Regent, Evelyn Burgess, and the members for their assistance, loyal support and co-operation during the past year. To those who so kindly made donations we again express our thanks and hope for your continued support.

Much has been accomplished this past year and let us hope for even more in the year to come. We have made our influence felt in many ways and hope that with continued support from our members we shall attain even higher achievements this coming year.

Only by keeping our aims high can we achieve great things. We are indeed fortunate to have a wonderful leader in our young and beautiful Queen and let us be guided by her courage and leadership. May we protect our democratic way of life and fight Communism in any way possible, so we may always preserve our freedom, working faithfully and loyally and always cherishing in our hearts our Imperial motto, "One Flag, One Empire".

Funeral of M. Carl

The funeral of James Miller Carl was held from the Belleville Burial Company Funeral Home, Belleville, on Monday afternoon. The service in the chapel was conducted by Rev. H. Giffin and interment was made at the Zion Hill Cemetery, with the last rites being said by Mr. Giffin.

On Sunday afternoon two memorial services were held. Members of L.O.L. No. 3, Foxboro, gathered to pay their respects to a late brother and members of the Canadian Legion under President William Bailey and Rev. Eric Strain paid tribute to a departed comrade.

The bearers were B. Hollinger, Jas. Reynolds, Stan Cherry, Glen Ross, Garfield and Carman Dafeo.

Executive Meeting Sidney and Trenton O.C.C.E.

On Saturday evening the executive of the Ontario Council of Christian Education of Sidney and Trenton, were entertained at the home of the President, Mrs. Warren Harlow.

A short meeting was held with the Scripture being read by Mr. Farrow, after which he led in prayer.

The annual convention was discussed and it will be held on Wednesday, October 27th.

Mr. Floyd McInnes spoke concerning the coming temperance vote in Sidney. Mr. Farrow invited the fathers and sons of Sidney Township to be present at a father and son banquet March 26th in connection with the Older Boys Parliament to be held in Thomasburg.

"Take My Life and Let It Be," was sung with Mrs. B. Reide as pianist. Mr. McInnes closed the meeting with prayer.

Delicious refreshments were served and Mr. David Hollinger thanked Mrs. Harlow for her hospitality.

TRACE ELEMENTS ESSENTIAL FOR PLANTS AND ANIMALS

Latest information on the importance of trace elements in plant and animal nutrition, coupled with symptoms of deficiency and recommendations for their use, is contained in the new booklet prepared by the Advisory Fertilizer Board.

In a comprehensive review the booklet points out that the elements most frequently deficient for plant growth are boron, magnesium, manganese and copper. Iodine and cobalt are sometimes in low supply for animals and are added directly to the diet. Although they may be present in plants they are not considered to be essential.

The Board advises caution in applying these trace elements. Excess applications may be harmful while too small doses may be ineffective. Warning is given against "shotgun" applications. This refers to indiscriminate applications just in case there may be deficiencies.

The symptoms of most of these deficiencies are well known and the Board provides full information as to time and methods of application of any needed correctives. The problem of trace element deficiencies has engaged the attention of the Board since 1936 when warning was issued regarding the dangers of excess chlorine on tobacco. The use of copper in onion production on muck soils was advised fifteen years ago while official recommendations for borax applications to turnips and celery were given in 1942. Other deficiencies as they have appeared from time to time have been given detailed study by the Board and advice given as to their correction.

At the Annual Meeting of the Advisory Board recently held D. H. Hill, Horticultural Department, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, was named as Chairman of the important "Trace Element Committee."

Copies of the bulletin published by the Board may be secured free from any Agricultural Representative or by writing directly to Statistics Branch, Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Toronto, Ontario.

CORN AS A CASH CROP

Corn makes a good cash crop for eastern Ontario. The starch factory at Cardinal is within easy trucking distance of most of the area, and will buy corn of good quality. Local feed dealers and feed companies in the larger centres, provide an alternative market, so that any surplus above home requirements can be readily sold.

Sales values will differ of course with different seasons and locations, but on the basis of Ontario quotations at the end of December, 1953, shelled corn with 15 per cent moisture content, was $1.45 a bushel and feed oats 65 cents, or the equivalent of $2.48 and $1.01 per 100 pounds. A 50-bushel corn crop, at this price would be worth $72.50 an acre while a 50-bushel oat crop would be worth only $32.50.

RUSHING THE SEASON

Many ardent amateur gardeners will be thinking of stealing a march on nature by growing some of their annual seeds indoors in pots or flats. The greatest chance for failure in this procedure is from the fungus disease as "damping-off." With this disease the seeds will germinate and the tender shoots will penetrate the soil only to wither and die.

Horticultural authorities at the Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa, say the best way to avoid "damping-off" is to sterilize the equipment. With the first method, boiling water is poured over the soil until the temperature rises to 150 degrees. The soil is then covered to hold that temperature for half-an-hour and allowed to dry before being used. The second method is to place a bushel of soil on the potting bench and sprinkle it with two-and-a-half tablespoonsful of formalin in a quart of water. The soil should be thoroughly mixed and allowed to stand for at least twenty-four hours before putting it into pots or flats.

A suitable soil is made of equal parts of loam and leaf mould with sufficient sand to make the mixture friable. Half-an-inch of finely sifted soil well packed down is recommended at the top to make the actual bed for the seeds. Some gardeners prefer finely shredded sphagnum moss instead of the sifted soil, as it lessens the chance of "damping-off." Adequate drainage is needed in pots and flats and watering is done best by letting water soak up from the bottom rather than watering from the top.

When the seedlings are large enough to handle they should be transplanted into flats three to six inches apart depending on the size to which the plant will grow. Most amateur gardeners do not have a greenhouse or hot-beds, nor do they wish to go to the trouble of making a cold-frame. In this case, seedlings can be hardened off satisfactorily, by placing the flats out of doors — once the severe weather is over — during the warmest part of the day and bringing them indoors before the temperature cools. By gradually lengthening the time they are left outdoors they will be ready to plant in the garden when spring weather comes. By raising plants indoors they will come to bloom a week or two earlier than those started outside.

George E. Currie, principal of Belleville Collegiate and Vocational Institute, has been appointed principal of St. Catharines Collegiate Institute and Vocational School.

He turned in his resignation at Belleville Monday, effective at the close of the present school term.

Carmel Young Adult Group

Carmel Young Adult Group held their first meeting of the year in the Jubilee Hall and each member brought two dishes, one for the first and one for the second course, so that all enjoyed a pot luck supper, after which the meeting was called to order by the president, Eileen Brooks.

The hymn "Take My Life and Let It Be" was sung, followed by prayer by Rev. Baker. The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved and a letter from the secretary of the congregational meeting was read recommending that the Group aid in remodelling the church. A motion was put to the Group who voted $150.00 to buy the lumber for the new seats for the church and choir loft. A motion was made to send Mrs. Kay Murray, a patient at Ongwanda, a box. Archie and Bill Bailey thanked the group for their boxes received while they were on the sick list.

The election of officers followed with the following slate: Past President, Eileen Brooks; President, Rita Pyear; Vice President, Jim Hubel; Secretary, Joyce Bailey; Treasurer, Lenfa Daley; Sick Convener, Shirley Pyear; Pianist, Dorothy Johnson;

Press Reporter, Eleanor Bailey. The hymn, "Lead Kindly Light" was sung and Mr. Baker voiced the thanks of the group to Eileen for her capable leadership during the past year.

Rita took the chair and thanked the group for their vote and asked for the co-operation of each one. The meeting closed with the Mizpah Benediction.

The second meeting was held at the Hall on February 5th with president, Rita Pyear, in the chair, she spoke words of welcome to visitors from the neighbourhood who had come to hear the guest speaker.

The meeting opened with the hymn "Jesus Keep Me Near the Cross." Mr. Baker led in prayer, followed by the Lord's Prayer in unison. The Scripture was read by Joyce Bailey. "What shall it profit a man if he should gain the whole world and lose his soul?" Mr. Baker led in a Scriptural Study of signs and symbols. At this meeting the study was of crosses of which Mrs. Pyear had a beautiful illustration made and set up at the front of the hall. There are the Roman Cross, the Greek and St. Andrew's Cross. It was very interesting. The hymn, "He Leadeth Me", was sung.

Minutes of last meeting were read and approved. The next meeting was planned as a sleigh ride party at the home of Archie Bailey. Happy Birthday was sung to Jean Grills. A reading by Jim Hubel, "The Driving Day", was enjoyed. Lyle Couch favoured with a solo.

The guest speaker, Mr. Francis, Ag. Rep., was introduced by Mr. Baker and Mr. Francis spoke on "Farm Management." The informative talk which ended by saying, "Trifles make perfection, but perfection is so trifling."

A duet was sung by Margaret Brooks and Dawn Hubel and a humorous recitation was given by Lyle Couch, "Ma and the Auto". A very successful meeting was brought to a close by the singing of the Mizpah benediction and lunch.

The third meeting of the year was held on February 19th at the home of Arch and Eileen Bailey in the form of a sleigh riding party and a large group of young people enjoyed tobogganing down a very steep hill and walking back up. At about 10.30, all went to the house where Rita Pyear called the meeting to order. Jack Bailey read the minutes. A motion was made that an oyster supper be held with the executive in charge of plans, also that new song books be sent for. A letter of thanks was read from Mrs. Kay Murray for the box she had received. A lunch of hot soup and crackers was served. A Happy Birthday was sung to Charlie Bailey and a vote of thanks was tendered the hostess.

CONSERVATION NEWS!

Log Hauling And Sealing Work Nearing Completion

Very mild weather last week slowed up log hauling operations in the District. Most larger operators, however, had completed hauls and no serious difficulties are anticipated.

Sealing Staff in both the Dacre and Bancroft Divisions are now well caught up on log measurements, and except for a few hot logging operation will be free to turn their attention to preparing returns and final inspection reports.

Trappers Problems Discussed

A series of nine trappers' meetings were held in southern sections of the District during the last week in February and a number of trapping problems were discussed including dates and lengths of future seasons.

Messrs. H. G. Lumsden and P. A. Thompson of the Department's Fish and Wildlife Staff at Tweed described work done on muskrats in the Conroy Marsh and other areas during the past twelve months. Results indicated that possibly fall and winter muskrat seasons would give trappers a higher cash return on their total harvest of fur and in most cases a clear majority of trappers attending favoured such a plan for a two year test period.

This year's muskrat season opened south of No. 7 Highway on March 1st, with mild weather general and creeks open. However more cold weather and snow is likely before spring finally arrives.

Dogs Running At Large Still A Problem

Conservation Officers in the Tweed District are having their annual difficulties with dogs killing deer. Several complaints have already been investigated and a charge is being laid against a Renfrew County resident whose collie dog recently destroyed a doe, later found to be carrying two fawns.

Investigation of complaints indicate that collies and part collie dogs are most frequent offenders. In recent years, sportsmen have been more careful in restraining dogs from running at large, but unfortunately there has been a general impression that the Game and Fisheries Act refers only to hounds. Anyone in doubt on this point should read the definition under Section (1) at the beginning of the Act which reads "A dog means any dog, male or female."

It's probably a little unfair to condemn the collie and his half brothers for inherited instincts which make them marauders at this time of year, and because of their usefulness around the farm, also a hardship to keep them tied up at all times. Nevertheless if the animals are found to be away on "hunting" trips, the owner will have to take necessary steps to restrain them.

When a dog kills a deer the Conservation Officer has no choice but to locate the owner, and on establishing proof, initiate court action for allowing the dog to run at large. Officers don't particularly like such tasks or disposing of the offending animal but unfortunately efforts during the past few years to obtain better co-operation from owners have not shown much improvement.

WHAT CAUSES ACCIDENTS?

Get a good safe grip on life, says a pamphlet of an insurance group. "Check yourself every time you drive. If you're worried, impatient, angry, in a hurry, or upset; think twice before driving. That second thought may save YOUR life."

For as long as there is human suffering then there is need of the Red Cross. You know the need, and how great it is. Please help generously—the work of mercy never ends.

On this happy occasion of your marriage, we are gathered here to spend a few social hours with you, a celebration of the first milestone of your lives together.

Bill, we have always known you, having been born in this neighbourhood and we regret very deeply your removal from us. Some of us here

To you and your wife we offer our heartfelt congratulations and hope in the future we will become better acquainted. You both will always be welcome in our midst, and when ever it is possible we feel that you will join us in any activities of the neighbourhood.

As a token of our good will we present these gifts and hope they will bring pleasant memories of your friends and neighbours.

Signed on behalf of your friends and neighbours, Harold McCann and Donald Bronson.

Grandmother of Mrs. John Kerby, Ivanhoe 90 Years Old

When Mrs. Sarah Ann Leavesley, of Nottingham, England, grandmother of Mrs. John Kerby, Ivanhoe, who was 90 years old on Wednesday, January 29th, exchanged her school desk for a factory bench at the age of 11, her wage was 3s. a week, and a deduction for sickness benefit left her with only 2s. 10½d. to take home.

With memories of the 1½ miles she had to walk from Chesterfield, where she was then living, to the Brampton works, where for 12 hours daily she helped to make wadding, bandages and pill boxes, Mrs. Leavesley said, "It didn't pay for my shoe leather."

Not that she dislikes walking. On the contrary, it has always been among her favourite pastimes, and one of her few regrets is that she can no longer venture out alone to look at the shops.

There can be no doubting her fitness in other respects. "I could still do a day's washing," she said, "if I could stand long enough."

Struck in the face by a stone when she was nine, Mrs. Leavesley has ever since had to manage without the sight of her right eye. How little she has allowed herself to be handicapped by this disability is shown by the fact that she still reads, crochets and knits, and on her birthday her busy needle was producing a pair of baby's booties for her youngest great-grandchild.

There are five great-grandchildren, 10 grandchildren, four daughters and two sons. One of the sons is at present homeward-bound from Canada, where he attended his daughter's wedding. —The Guardian Journal, Nottingham, England.

Twenty-three per cent or nearly one-quarter of Canada's present annual production income is being "ploughed back" into creation of capital assets which will go to increasing future production.

Topic On Education

Mr. Meighen Rodgers was unable to attend the meeting to present a paper and Mrs. George Scales, convener for Education, presented it. The topic was "Principles of Education," leading into child education factors, the meaning and purposes of education and why the child must be educated.

The child must be given skilled knowledge and ideals, each successive generation must add something new and better to what has been already accomplished by the adult, greater skill, broader knowledge and worthwhile ideals.

Why does the child need education?

Take for example, as a kernel of corn develops a slow but gradual growth in three directions, learning new habits, getting new knowledge, using his will and power to do things, experiencing satisfaction from his working and thinking success, and growing into a frame of mind and disposition of conduct in living with people. Desiring to do what he sees others doing and overcoming difficulties and developing his own desire to create and be educated to satisfy himself, to the demands of society in which he lives. Good citizenship, complete Christian living, healthy living, is a very high respect in connection with development completion. It's only a healthy body and mind that can create and accomplish one's highest ideals in life.

In the beginning the home is the foundation for every child's education and development. The affection and training from the fond parents is just as important as food. The same affection must be developed in entering school. Children need to be liked. This goes a long way on the road to forming a well rounded child.

Discipline, kindness and friendliness is an important essential in the child's life, or all along the way to old age. Fear is a drawback in a child's life. Relaxing puts all concerned at ease. To parents, take your child into consideration of your problems around (Continued on Page Eight)

St. Andrew's W.M.S.

The March meeting of St. Andrew's W.M.S. was held in the church parlours on Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. L. Rodgers opened the meeting with a word of welcome to all. The hymn, "Courage Brother Do Not Stumble," was sung. Mrs. C. Tummon read the Scripture Lesson and Mrs. E. Hoard led the meeting in prayer. Mrs. Earl Fox conducted the roll call. The word "courage" was the key word. Let each member strive to be prepared next month to answer with a verse of Scripture with the word "Joy." It was decided that each member will strive to make three sick calls next month.

The funds for the bazaar were discussed and it was decided to hold a home cooking sale in April in order to meet that need.

Mrs. Jas. Johnston expressed the thanks of the Mission Band for the seals which had been provided by the W.M.S. The future of our church depends on the youth.

The April meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Roy Eggleton with Mrs. Don Rodgers and Mrs. C. Devolin assisting. It is our earnest prayer that every W.M.S. member will avail themselves of the opportunity of being present at that meeting.

Mrs. R. H. Williams, Glad Tidings Secretary, urged for the importance of the magazine. A fine Easter programme is to be found in the March number, so she suggested that it might well be followed for the next meeting.

The collection was taken by Mrs. R. A. Hermiston, after which all joined in singing the Doxology.

Mrs. Ken Ray had charge of the second part of the programme and opened with the reading of a short poem entitled, "March," after which she led the meeting in prayer. Mrs. Hermiston gave a fine educational reading on St. Patrick and his life. A piano solo by Mrs. Vernon Matthews provided the truth of the words, "Music hath charms."

The topic on "The Land of Africa," was very well dealt with by Mrs. (Rev.) W. H. V. Walker. Race is not a problem it is a fact. Each race has a distinct contribution to make to our world and Africa's share is just commencing. Only Christianity in action can remove prejudices which bar the way to lasting advance and peace. Throughout the years no other force in Africa has lifted more eyes, opened more minds and raised more hopes than Christianity in action. Yet in Africa there is still evident disease, bitterness and despair. The greatest reason for this is that the government industry and the church have failed to fulfill the promise and deliver the power which Christianity provides.

Mrs. Ken Ray gave a fine reading entitled, "When God Cleans House." Are we satisfied with our lives? For centuries the Christian Church observed the period of forty days as leading up to Easter as a period of soul searching and heart cleansing. In our homes it is a period of house cleaning. Why not give God a chance to house clean our lives? When we let God in to take over our wills we should also let Him clean our minds. Let us now open our minds to the good news of God's doings. During the weeks of Lent shift our thoughts from the frightening things other people may do to us and think only of the blessed things God has done for us.

The singing of a hymn and the benediction brought the meeting to a close.

Mrs. L. Dafeo assisted by Mrs. K. Ray and Mrs. W. L. Munro served a delightful afternoon tea. On behalf of the Society Mrs. H. Rollins thanked the committee for their fine missionary programme and tea.

Ivanhoe W.I. Sponsors Concert

A concert was held in Ivanhoe Town Hall on Wednesday evening sponsored by Ivanhoe W.I. A short musical programme was presented, conducted by Mr. Reg. Haggerty, who sang as an opening number, "I'm Sitting On Top of the World." All joined in singing old favourites with Mrs. R. Haggerty at the piano. Mr. Haggerty was assisted in the closing number, "A Woman," by Mrs. George Wood, Mrs. R. Barnard and Mrs. R. Demille.

President, Mrs. E. McMaster, introduced the guest speaker, Mrs. E. Follwell, of Belleville, who showed films she had taken of the Coronation and many famous and historical scenes in England, France, Switzerland and Holland. Mrs. Follwell proved to be an interesting and pleasing narrator, and in closing delighted the small fry by showing a comic.

The W.I. members are indebted to Mrs. Follwell who braved the stormy weather to present fine entertainment. This feeling was expressed by Miss Jane Gay. Lunch was served.

Mrs. E. Sine Guest Speaker

Ivanhoe Women's Institute held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Barton Haggerty. The President, Mrs. E. McMaster, opened the meeting in the usual manner. She also extended a warm welcome to Mrs. E. Sine, of Rawdon Township, guest speaker for the afternoon.

Mrs. J. Wright gave the minutes of the last meeting and letters of thanks were read by the sick committee. It was decided to give a donation toward relief in Greece. The extension services for the "Homemaker" was dealt with; also a request by the President that all Conveners of the Standing Committee have reports ready to hand in at the April meeting.

Miss Edna Tanner, Convener of Home Economics and Health, was in charge of a very interesting program. Mrs. A. Gray, in keeping with the motto gave two suggestions of a menu for a Sunday dinner. Mrs. E. Colden delighted all with a solo, "Galway Bay," accompanied at the piano by Mrs. R. Haggerty. Mrs. G. Wood gave a paper "For People Will Talk," which was selected by Mrs. G. McInroy.

Mrs. E. Sine Guest Speaker
Mrs. E. Sine, guest speaker, was

CONTRIBUTE TO ANNUAL EASTER SEAL CAMPAIGN

The Ontario Society for Crippled Children, in association with the District Service Clubs, held sixteen crippled children's clinics throughout the province last year. Over thirteen hundred and fifty crippled children attended these clinics. Shown above is introduced by Miss E. Tanner. Mrs. Sine based her instructive talk on "Health." First, the need of being educated on the services of our health organizations; the need of sufficient rest and sleep; sanitation in home; the work of Medical Health Officers in the schools; the Victorian Order of Nurses giving instruction on child care and mother care; the need of education on the first symptoms of common diseases; the help that hospitalization plans have brought to the sick; the work of the Health Security Council; and last but not least, Mrs. Sine asked if the Institute members have ever planned to give blood to the Hospital Blood Bank in case of an emergency.

Mrs. McMaster extended thanks on behalf of the Institute to Mrs. Sine for her talk on this important subject. Mrs. R. Haggerty led in a sing-song of Irish songs. Miss E. Tanner had charge of a contest. Mrs. G. McInroy thanked the hostess.

The meeting was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem. A social half hour was enjoyed, sandwiches and tarts were served by the hostess and assistant hostesses.

Inspector: "So he got away. Did you guard all the exits?"
Policeman: "Yes, sir. We think he must have left by one of the entrances."

Tourist: "Any big men born around here?"

Native: "None, best we can do is babies. Different in the city, I suppose."

Correspondent Contest Announced By Ontario Weeklies

A new competition has been announced by the Ontario Division of the Canadian Weekly Newspaper Association. It is entitled "Champion Country Correspondent Contest," open to rural correspondents of member papers. Awards will be made at the annual convention in London on June 11th and 12th. Full details of the contest are now in the hands of the publishers of this newspaper.

"The Champion Country Correspondent will be honoured at the convention in June when he or she will be our honoured guest," said Werden Leavers, secretary manager of the Association. Robert H. Saunders, Q.C., Chairman of the Ontario Hydro and long a friend of the weeklies, has agreed to donate a suitable award to the champion. Second and third winners will receive diplomas. The Hydro Chairman credits the large rural circulation of the weeklies in Ontario to the rural correspondents and the news they produce. Mr. Saunders thinks "country items are the backbone of the rural town weekly," of which he has a very high opinion. The Ontario Hydro is using the weeklies currently for a series of advertisements of Ontario Hydro — at work for you and yours. Mr. Saunders is looking forward to attending the Convention of the Ontario Weeklies in June when he will make the presentations. The competition will be judged on the basis of correspondence by the competitors on certain dates between

Ford Sales Increased In 1953

A substantial increase in the sale of vehicles by Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, raised total dollar sales in 1953 to a new record. Rhys M. Sale, president, told shareholders Monday in a preliminary report on last year's operations. Mr. Sale's letter to shareholders said the company's annual report would be mailed about a month from now.

The total value of sales at $309,443,029 was the highest on record, an increase of $41,759,060 over 1952. Sales in Canada totalled $287,469,395, an increase of $59,612,643, or 26 per cent. Unit sales of Ford of Canada cars, trucks and tractors in domestic and export markets increased 20 per cent to a total of 165,802.

I.O.O.F. Hall Belleville, Damaged

Loss estimated at approximately $30,000, most of it water damage to ground floor stores, resulted at Belleville Saturday night when fire swept through the I.O.O.F. hall on Front St. Firemen confined the blaze to the third floor dance hall after a stubborn two-hour fight, but water caused heavy damage in three stores below.

Heaviest water damage was suffered at the Woodley Furriers where hats and accessories as well as store fixtures and equipment, were drenched. Water damage was also heavy in McKeown's Drug store and in the Albert Style Shop. Tarpaulins placed over store merchandise and fixtures saved stores from heavier damage. A new roof will be required for the building.

St. Paul's--Carmel News Items

(By Rev. A. E. Baker, U.E.)

Keeping Lent

The spiritual values of the Lenten season are not exhausted by the acceptance of traditional sacrificial acts. With tragic world conditions about us we should ponder deeply the utter selfless obedience to love that led Christ to Calvary and to let God's love control our lives in an outreach to ever-widening circles of service and self-sacrifice.

Brilliant Leader

One of the most dynamic of the younger leaders of the United Church of Canada will preach at St. Paul's next Sunday morning and evening in the person of Rev. R. J. D. Morris, Associate Secretary of the Missionary and Maintenance Fund who will shortly relinquish this post to return to the Pastorate. He will also speak at Carmel in the afternoon.

Congregational Meeting

It was announced at St. Paul's last Sunday that a congregational meeting would be held after the evening service next Sunday to appoint a Pastoral Relations Committee or to authorize the Official Board to do so. It is expected that the Carmel congregation will elect representatives to this committee next Sunday also.

Carmel

The finishing touches were placed on the interior of the Carmel Church this week. It will be ready for the re-opening service on Sunday, March 28th. The entire woodwork has been renewed; new floor laid and covered with heavy battleship linoleum. This has been thoroughly treated and waxed. New pews beautifully grained and locally manufactured have been installed; new pulpit with pulpit apron bearing the insignia of the United Church of Canada installed. The latter is a memorial gift. New oil burner; new stained glass transom over entrance door inscribed: (1) Enter His Gates with Thanksgiving; (2) Carmel United Church. New front doors have also replaced those of long service. All window lights have been reconditioned and frosted.

Rev. Sheldon Throop, B.A., B.D., Chairman of the Belleville Presbytery, will officiate at the opening service Sunday, March 28th at 2.30 p.m. This service will include the Sacraments of Baptism and The Lord's Supper. The furnishings will also be dedicated. The response to the appeal to purchase pews has been most encouraging. Opening services give promise of offerings that will find all improvements paid for when the special services are over.

Other Improvements

During the present pastorate the spacious Silver Jubilee Hall was erected and dedicated to the "Glory of God." The preparation for this fine achievement were almost entirely made during the Pastorate of the Rev. Ralph Barker. The lofty flag pole erected; piano and beautiful curtains purchased for the Jubilee Hall; spacious walks and outside platform erected; the interior of the church decorated; ed; beacon light and ornament erected on church and hall; gravelling of parking area; opening of little Cemetery Road by the Rawdon Council; opening of stained glass window fund for the Elijah and Elieha windows; erection of church sign; installation of a Church Honour Roll; furnishing of church with new Bibles; publication of the Church History; free circulation by the Sunday School to all families of the United Church Observer; Year-round Church and Sunday School. These are among the many achievements of the devoted men and women of the Carmel community who have not hesitated to put their hands to the plough.

Carmel will mark its 96th Anniversary being the 79th year of service in the present building on Sunday, September 26th. Previous to the erection of the church in 1875 services were held by the Wesleyan Methodists at the Glen Ross School (Tupperville) and by the Methodist Episcopalists at the Bailey School on the Town Line. This area is now served by the Union School Section No. 22 of Rawdon and Sidney.

Success

The achievements at Carmel have been made possible by the unity of the community. The strength of the people is not dissipated by a surfeit of societies. The Woman's Association is sufficient to engage the time and talents of the splendid women. They have escaped the perils resulting from divisions. With great insight and superlative wisdom they chose to work in the church and through the Church Woman's Association in preference to worthy but secondary outside organizations. So long as they adhere to this policy the Carmel community will be blessed. Whom the forces of evil would destroy they first divide.

St. Paul's Sunday School

At a meeting of the Sunday School Board held at the "Mansion House" last Sunday night with Supt. Harold Hagerman presiding, the following matters were reported or approved: (1) Payment for Centennial Year Books for all regular pupils of the School; (2) The use of the church Parlours for the Beginners with experimental hand-work tables; (3) Individual class closing exercises each Sunday; (4) Continuation of the Sunday School envelope system; (5) Preparations for the Sunday School Anniversary; (6) Acceptance of responsibility for catering for the 1954 Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise; (7) Responsibility for the every family delivery of the United Church Observer in 1954. Mr. Allen Francis graciously conveyed the thanks of all to Mr. and Mrs. Walter T. Elliott for the gracious hospitality extended to them.

Lent

The return of our Lenten Self Denial envelopes is encouraging. The envelopes for the third week; also all first and second week envelopes yet outstanding, should be returned with Lenten self denial gifts next Sunday, the first day of spring.

March 17th

We join with all loyal Irishmen in recognizing St. Patrick's Day. The valiant Christian Saint for whom the day is named rests from his labours in a Protestant Cemetery in Northern Ireland.

Canada owes a great deal to the sons and daughters of "Auld Erin." There are all too few of them in this part of Ontario. The ranks of worthy descendants of Irish pioneers should be freshened by a stream of immigrants from Loyal Ulster.

Easter Lilies

It is not too soon to make plans to place an Easter lily in the church. It would be a ministry of great beauty and forgetful memory if every family in the Church would be responsible for an Easter Lily this Centennial Year. Memorial lilies may be designated if desired.

Festival Entry

To Miss Heather Rodgers goes the honour of filing the first entry for the 1954 Stirling Festival of Sacred Praise. Persons so desiring may obtain copies of the syllabus. The Festival is open to all churches and there are classes for every age.

Gananoque Back To Saturday Night

At a meeting held by the Gananoque retail merchants last week, a motion was made and carried that the stores revert to the Saturday night opening in preference to Friday nights.

Rylstone W.I.

The Rylstone Women's Institute held their March meeting at the home of Mrs. Charles Stewart on Wednesday, March 3rd with about 30 ladies present. A quilt top had been made by the ladies and it was quilted at this meeting.

A pot luck dinner was enjoyed by all at noon.

Owing to the quilting the regular meeting was much shorter than usual. The meeting opened with the Institute Ode and Lord's Prayer, followed by roll call answered by "Do Something Irish," which consisted of humorous stories, Irish songs and music and a reading, "That Old Irish Mother of Mine."

A nominating committee was chosen to seek out officer material for the coming annual meeting and election of officers. A donation to Campbellford Memorial Hospital was made. A letter had been received from the Mental Health Association and plans made for the "Penny Round Up" as was done last year. Sewing for the Campbellford Memorial Hospital was distributed to the ladies at this meeting, the completed articles to be handed in to the President either at the April meeting or before.

Mrs. Lindsay Anderson, former President, and her daughter, Linda, now at Milliken, were guests at the pot luck dinner and quilting.

Thirty-two Telephones Added In Stirling During Last Year

With more customers, more shareholders and more employees than ever before in its history, The Bell Telephone Company of Canada enjoys "a state of vigorous good health" during 1953, according to the company's 74th annual report issued on February 25th.

A total of $93,936,298 in wages and salaries was paid to Bell employees in Ontario and Quebec last year. At the end of 1953 the company employed 31,502 people — 19,917 women and 11,585 men.

The number of shareholders increased during 1953 to 115,789, a record for any Canadian company. Most shareholders — 98 per cent — reside in Canada and 91 per cent live in Ontario and Quebec. The majority of individual shareholders are women.

The construction of new facilities during the year was the most extensive in the company's history and a record 151,333 telephones were added, bringing the total number in service to 2,127,456. More than half the orders for telephones were met promptly, and those remaining unfilled were further reduced to 52,862 from 58,354.

Commenting on this aspect of the report, G. W. Proctor, Bell Manager for this region, said that 32 telephones were added in Stirling during 1953, bringing the total to 1034 and leaving 10 unfilled orders at the year-end.

Net income amounted to $2.65 a share, compared with $2.47 a share in 1952. The usual $2 dividend was paid and an amount equivalent to 65 cents a share was added to surplus. The expenditure of $85,700,000 for new construction, necessitated by the continuing demand for service, was the highest amount for a single year in the company's history.

Total taxes amounted to $29,899,000.

Government and business continued to turn to the company for services specially devised to meet their requirements. The company's microwave radio relay system between Toronto, Ottawa and Montreal, which also carries telephone conversations, was used extensively by the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation to transmit television programmes between its stations in these centres. A "bell and light" attack-warning network, first of its kind in Canada, was installed in Hamilton. The company assumed responsibility for the widespread general communications requirements of the Hydro-Electric Power Commission of Ontario.

STIRLING

ONTARIO

Hello Homemakers! Some homemakers like to cook vegetables in an inch of boiling water. Other's say they don't. Then the argument is on; one version prefers the flavour, while another insists foods burn when so little water is used. Actually, it depends on the condition of the saucepans as well as the covers and whether the stove has controlled heat. At this time of year, home-stored vegetables may not be too plump. However, if each day's supply of root vegetables is washed and stored overnight in refrigerator the vegetables will not boil dry when cooked in a small amount of water. Exact cooking time depends on the age of vegetables and size of pieces in a covered saucepan.

TAKE A TIP

To Boil Vegetables

1. Pour an inch of water in a saucepan with a tight-fitting cover.
2. Allow water to boil rapidly and add salt (about half a teaspoon).
3. Add vegetables and cover.
4. When boiling begins again, turn to medium or position 3 to maintain the boiling.
5. Allow thirty to forty minutes for home-stored vegetables, such as old carrots (whole), onions (quartered), parsnips (cut lengthwise), turnips (in 1/2 inch cubes), and medium potatoes (scrubbed).
6. Pierce vegetables with a fork to test when tender and drain as soon as possible.

7. Cook quantity for one meal at a time and do not peel more than an hour before meal time. This saves vitamin value and flavour.

SUGGESTIONS

1. Cook equal amounts of sliced carrots and 1 inch pieces of celery together.
2. Sprinkle a little sage and nutmeg over boiled parsnips.
3. Add dry crumbs that have been browned in butter to boiled onions.
4. Add a cheese sauce to boiled cubed turnips.
5. Drain potatoes, remove skins, then return to saucepan and shake gently over heat to make mealy. Sprinkle with dried parsley occasionally.

QUESTION BOX

Mrs. S. C. asks: What vegetables can be heated in the broiling pan when cooking steaks?

Answer: Cooked vegetables cut in one half inch thick slices such as potatoes, carrots, onions, or canned string beans, or raw tomatoes are placed below the rack of broiling pan. During the broiling period of 16 to 18 minutes, vegetables will be flavoured with dripping and heated through.

Mrs. C. M. asks: Should mushrooms be broiled instead of fried?

Answer: Mushrooms broil in ten minutes when placed four inches from top oven element. Remove the stems and slice them. Season the caps and sliced stems with salt, pepper and brush with butter. Place in the broil-ing pan and stir two or three times during the cooking period.

Miss S. T. asks: Should scalloped potatoes be covered to prevent darkening for a time-controlled oven meal?

Answer: Since the milk may boil over in a covered dish, it would be advisable to add a cream sauce to sliced raw potatoes and leave the dish uncovered for the time-clock meal.

Miss H. H. asks: How do you suggest keeping mashed potatoes hot for late guests?

Answer: The best method for keeping foods hot is placing the saucepan in a basin with a little hot water in it. Add 1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar to the water and this will prevent discoloration of aluminum pans.

Anne Allan invites you to write to her c/o Stirling News-Argus. Send in your suggestions on homemaking problems and watch this column for replies.

Sale of Easter Seals Means Hope To 9,000 Children

To the 9,000 handicapped children scattered throughout Ontario, on farms, in city homes or in remote northern hamlets, the 1954 sale of Easter Seals brings treatment and training, a possibility of independence and relief from the physical handicaps that birth, illness or accident left them.

Last year the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, whose only appeal for funds is made in the annual sale of Easter Seals by nearly 200 service clubs, carried out the biggest program in all its history. And this year the 9,000 youngsters who are listed on their rolls as "active" cases will have increased, because Ontario's swiftly-growing population means hundreds of new cases each year. The objective in this year's Easter Seals campaign, March 18th to April 18th is $500,000.

The organization that cares for this number of children is amazingly small. A tightly-knit office staff at headquarters in Toronto, a score of highly-trained nurses and a corps of volunteer doctors and an army of public-spirited citizens who give freely of their time. The result is a volume of service out of all proportion to the money spent in the work.

This work takes several forms. There is a nursing service, made up of 21 graduate nurses, each of whom has taken a special post-graduate course in orthopedics and is authorized by special Act of the Ontario Legislature to wear the title Orthopedics Consultant. These nurses visit the homes of handicapped children, teach the parents how to administer therapy treatment or direct the child to medical attention.

The nurses function in specific divisions of the province, ranging from the Lakehead area to Eastern Ontario. Available for their use are 4 qualified therapists whose value is indicated by the fact that the Ontario government requested the assistance of two during a polio epidemic last year, which assistance was provided by the Society at no cost to the province or patients.

Five summer camps this year will give outings to 1,200 children who would otherwise have no such holiday because of their inability to attend conventional camps. This is the biggest crippled children's camping program of any single political area in the world, and its importance is that it more than gives a holiday; it teaches children who often are embarrassed by handicaps to care for themselves and get along with other youngsters. Year round, too, one camp, Woodeden, near London, is a cerebral palsy centre to provide special treatment for such cases.

Clinics for the examination of children in areas far from major hospital centres are also organized, and last year 15 of these were held, with top specialists from Toronto, Hamilton, Ottawa and elsewhere giving free services. If children need hospitalization, this is provided on the specialists' advice, and local doctors co-operate in providing treatment at home.

In many other programs, the Easter Seals provide the means for alleviating suffering and providing such as that in the unique Variety Village, which is operated by the Society for the Variety Club of Toronto, where crippled children learn trades. And all these problems add up to a chance for youngsters whose future otherwise looks dark.

WHAT OTHERS SAY!

MANY M.P.'s CANNOT SPEAK

(B. K. SANDWELL) in The Financial Post

The followers of Hansard would feel more reconciled to the $40,000 a year which he and his fellow taxpayers are now required to pay to their federal representatives in the two Houses, if the gentlemen who draw that stipend were all capable of delivering a five minute speech without having to read it from a typescript. (I was careful to say gentlemen, because I am sure that the lady members are not among those whose oratorical powers are thus circumscribed.)

There was a time when members of Parliament cost the country considerably less than half what they cost it today, and exhibited on the average at least twice as much ability to express themselves without a manuscript in hand.

What distresses me even more than the deterioration in the quality of the debates is the obvious increase in the foolishness of the ordinary member. For this whole business of reading speeches, except in the special cases provided for by the rules of the House, is nothing short of silly. Everybody, even those who can do nothing but read him Hansard, knows when an honorable member is reading his speech. And for a man who has attained the pinnacle of being elected as a member to admit that he is incapable of addressing Mr. Speaker for five minutes without a full verbatim manuscript — this is the ultimate confession of incapacity, the supreme declaration of "I have no business here."

THE NEW BABY

column in the Arncliffe Chronicle:

"When a new baby arrives in the home there is always a flurry of excitement and everything is changed overnight, particularly if it is the first one to arrive. It is then discovered that a baby is an alimentary canal with a loud voice at one end and no means of responsibility at the other. That lessened sense of responsibility usually comes at the wee wee hours of the morning. This explains that definition in later life, of a smart guy, one who hasn't let any woman plan anything on him since he was a baby.

A baby gets away with everything but murder. Morale don't mean a thing to him. He's unmarried and lives with a woman he's crazy about, and he doesn't care what the neighbours think or say. On such controversial topics as the liquor question nobody knows exactly where he stands: One minute he's wet and the next minute he's dry. Children are a great comfort in your old age, and they help you reach it faster."

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

HOG PRODUCERS APPROVE PLAN TO COLLECT FUND

The Ontario Hog Producers' Association approved a plan to collect a fund to be placed in a trust account and used for marketing hogs in times of surplus production.

The association, which praised both its marketing board and its sales agency, also voted to try to keep producers better informed of the benefits of selling through the Ontario Stockyards in Toronto, rather than directly to packers.

The hog producers asked that the Federal Department of Agriculture look into the matter of sending representatives to the United Kingdom and elsewhere to study the best means of selling Canadian pork, requirements of the United States market should be kept in mind, as it is the handiest.

Lower Weight

One resolution proposed lowering weights of select hogs from 140 lbs. to 130 and from 170 to 160. However, since the U.S. prefers larger hams and backs, the producers compromised and asked that weights for selects be lowered five pounds — to 165 and 135.

Another request was for a price spread investigation.

The meeting decided the advisability of establishing other stockyards should be looked into.

It gave the marketing board a free rein to increase its revenue by putting up the toll from two cents to five cents a hog if it feels such a move necessary.

The view was expressed that the control and direction of hogs marketed in the province should be in the hands of a central marketing agency marketing board. Delegates asked that the problem "be pursued with vigor."

They voted in favour of increasing the premium on grade A hogs to $3 and dropping the $1 premium on B1 hogs. Delegates also said they believed they should help in any way possible producers who have to move from some areas where hog feeding is prohibited.

Earlier, Ralph Bennett, chief of the federal marketing service, urged more quality in hogs and said the public does not want fat.

Charles McInnis, of Iroquois, was re-elected President.

ONTARIO FARMERS URGED TO REGISTER LABOR NEEDS

John A. Carroll, Assistant Deputy Minister of Agriculture for Ontario and Chairman of the Ontario Federal-Provincial Farm Labor Committee, urged Ontario farmers to make an early assessment of their farm labor needs for the coming crop year.

"While the shortage of farm labor is not a new problem the rapid industrialization of recent years has intensified it," said Mr. Carroll in urging that farmers make known their labor needs by registering at the nearest National Employment Service Office. "Even in European countries which have a substantial farm labour class, farmers say that labor is scarce."

Pointing out that farm labor shortage constituted a real problem in Ontario, Mr. Carroll said that agricultural workers (including farmers and their sons) have been leaving the farms at the rate of about 1,000 a month since World War II.

"It is the duty of the Ontario Federal-Provincial Farm Labor Committee to do everything possible to fill the gap," said Mr. Carroll. "It is for that reason that we are asking for the immediate co-operation of the farmer in making his needs known."

During 1953 the Committee placed 20,000 workers on the farms of Ontario through the National Employment Service Office. This number included many short-term placements for grain harvesting and fruit picking. A large percentage of these were Ontario people. Other Canadians included Maritime and Prairie workers who were assisted by the Committee to come to Ontario to help with haying and harvest.

The Committee reports that a very important source of workers on a yearly basis is from immigrants. During the past season in addition to 250 men from Germany placed by the Committee, some 2,300 Dutch workers were supplied to Ontario farmers by other agencies.

Mr. Carroll said that while it was known that all placements were not satisfactory and that some farmers were disappointed by immigrants who did not complete a year's term, assurance has been given that changes will be made which, it is hoped, will effect an improvement in this respect.

"Every effort will be made to place all experienced Canadian workers that are available," said Mr. Carroll. "But it is evident that the supply will not be sufficient to meet the demand. Regardless of the type of help required, it is most important that farmers file their applications early as considerable time is needed to recruit and suitably distribute workers."

SELF-FEEDING OF PIGS PROVES PRACTICAL IN TEST

Two beliefs held by some hog breeders were dispelled when W. P. Watson, Ontario Live Stock Commissioner and Chairman of the Advanced Registry Test Station Board, reported that tests conducted at the Waterloo Pig Testing Station last year showed that self-feeding of pigs did not necessarily result in over-fat carcasses and that feed consumption per pound of gain was, if anything, somewhat lower than by hand-feeding.

Mr. Watson, in conjunction with William S. McMullen, Federal Department of Agriculture and Secretary of the Test Station Board, said that not only had tests brought out these two important factors but, pigs fed by the self-feeder method had been marketed one month earlier than those fed by hand in 1952.

That Ontario's pure bred swine breeders are taking advantage of the opportunity to learn more about their breeding stock is evident by the fact that 73 breeders consigned 159 test groups, each consisting of four pigs from a litter, to the Waterloo Station last year.

"This number would have been greater except for the fact that several groups were refused admittance during the period when hog cholera was quite widespread in Western Ontario," said Mr. Watson.

During 1953, 159 groups completed the test; the groups being delivered to the station when the total weight of the four pigs ranged from 140 to 180 pounds. The official test commenced when each group reached the 200 pound mark and wasn't completed until the weight of each pig marketed was 200 pounds.

Since mid-summer of 1952, all pigs were fed by self-feeder method.

"A ration containing about 16 per cent protein is fed until the pigs average 110 pounds then the pigs are fed one containing about 14 per cent protein," said Mr. Watson. "Although self-feeding has been condemned on the grounds that it tends to produce pigs carrying too much fat, such criticism is scarcely justified on the basis of 1953 results. In that year 444 or 69.7 per cent of the 636 pigs that completed the test qualified for A grade. (A lower percentage of A's might have resulted if a ration containing less protein had been fed.) During the same period only 32.2 per cent of Ontario's market hogs were classified in the top grade. That makes it obvious that Ontario's pure bred breeders are fulfilling the role intended of them by producing seed stock capable of improving our commercial pigs."

Experience at the Station refuted

the claim that feed consumption per pound of gain increases when self-feeders are used. The 1953 results indicated otherwise since, on the average, one pound of gain was produced with 3.5 pounds of feed.

This marks the highest rate of feed efficiency obtained in any year since the Station was established.

"The results point to the conclusion that top quality hogs can be produced as economically as hogs of the less desirable grades," said Mr. Watson.

Mr. Watson said that the results last year were encouraging from the standpoint of rate of gain. In 1951, the last year in which pigs were hand fed, the average age at the time of marketing was 261 days.

In 1953, the average age at the time of marketing was 179.6 days. Pigs fed by the self-feeder method went to market nearly a month earlier than those fed by hand in 1951.

"Despite the fact that Ontario's pure bred pigs made a very creditable showing when subjected to the A. R. test, two weaknesses were exposed upon analyses of the carcasses," Mr. Watson reports. "The factors, length and back fat suffered the heaviest penalties. If some pigs had been slightly longer, and if others had carried less back fat, higher scores would have resulted. Since these characteristics are inherited, breeders should select additions to their herds from strains that have high scores for length and back fat."

Mrs. John Brown was program convener and chose as her theme, "Time." Mrs. Berson Mitts read the Scripture Reading and Mrs. Brown gave a few thoughts on it. Mr. Fred Campbell favoured with a solo, "Dear Spirit Saviour Divine."

Mrs. Brown gave an address, "What Is Time?" There is a mystery about time which has ever fascinated the world's best thinkers. It was expressed by St. Paul when he wrote to the Ephesians, "Look carefully, then how you walk, not as wise, making the most of time." It is our God-given duty to make the most of the time allotted to us. There was no feverish hurrying about Jesus and He knew His earthly working days were short. He was fulfilling a life and to fulfill going on far beyond our years.

Moments with God help us to save time and give us power to keep going toward our goals. Make our leisure hours count for something. Divide in advance what you most want to do. We can always make time for a thing if we desire it enough. We are not limited to our own little span of years. Some of us will go on living in our children and grand children. Then, let us embrace each passing moment, but also remember that we can make added time by extending our lives into lives and causes which will be on far beyond our years.

Miss Mary Lou Reid favoured with a piano solo, "The Old Rugged Cross."

Miss Barbara Brown gave an interesting talk on "Where There's A Will — There's A Way," taking as an example the life of George Washington's Career. When someone asks us to do some task, don't refuse, you may only be dodging a good cure for your own weakness. Confidence in oneself and the feeling of satisfaction in your heart after the task, regardless of its size, has been successfully completed.

After the Mizpah Benediction Mr. and Mrs. Basil Kuglin conducted a contest on Hastings County and a spelling match. The hostess assisted by the lunch committee served refreshments.

Principles Education

the home. Whether it be duties or pleasures, oftentimes duties can be made a pleasure if we approach and handle the situation in the right way. How pleasant our attitude can be in our work if we try to make it so.

Fear tightens the nervous condition and so very often adults as well as children crave for someone to tell their anxiety problems too; either large or small, we need to have them solved. Many strange problems race and struggle in a child's mind. No one knows anything about and as long as fear prevails that child will carry a troubled mind and cannot and will not develop like the child that can and feels free of fear to ask his parents or schoolmates or teacher to help solve these minor troubles.

A child's education is a most important one, and the development is part of each and everyone of us to make it a life the best the people of the world can produce. It concerns each of us to give and show our best in contributing to each child's life regardless whether they be our own or our neighbours.

The meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer. The conveners were Mrs. S. McMurray, Mrs. S. Kirkey and Mrs. Maggie Ward.

Hubby: "The bank has returned that check."
Wife: "Splendid! What can we buy with it this time?"

Juveniles Drop First Game of Finals In Kincardine 4-3 Saturday

Winning Goal Came In The Final Minute — Second Game In Belleville This Sat.

After a thrilling struggle Stirling Juveniles dropped a 4-3 decision in the first game of the O.M.H.A. Juvenile "C" finals in Kincardine on Saturday night. A capacity crowd, including a goodly number of Stirling fans, saw two well-matched teams battle it out right down to the wire and it was not until the final minute of play that Kincardine scored the winning tally.

The "homesters" jumped into a two-goal lead early in the first period when it was evident that the Stirling boys were feeling the effects of the 275-mile bus trip. However, from the middle point of the period they began to find their ice legs and gradually took a slight edge in play. They scored the only goal of the second stanza and matched Kincardine with two goals in the final period. The officials were exceptionally strict and called twenty-three penalties, all minor, during the game.

First Period
Sutherland opened the scoring for Kincardine at the ten minute mark and was followed by Farrell two minutes later to make the count 2-0.

In the second stanza Scott gave the few faithful Stirling fans a chance to cheer when he faked his way from behind the Kincardine net to whip the disc home and put the locals back in the game.

Knapton, from Montgomery, scored the tying counter early in the third, but Burnside beat Brady to give Kincardine the lead again. Hermiston, on an assist from Knapton again tied the count and Sutherland scored the winner just before the final bell.

Playlet, "A Widening Circle" Presented At St. Paul's W.M.S.

March winds and rain failed to dampen the enthusiasm of the members of St. Paul's W.M.S. Auxiliary, when they met for the regular monthly meeting in the Church Hall.

The Group Convener, Mrs. C. Macklin, sang a solo and led the worship service which followed the theme, "The Open Bible." An interesting article clipped from the Globe and Mail and written by Jane Scott was read by the leader. Mrs. H. Pitcher offered prayer and led the members in the litany of worship and praise.

The Study Book chapter entitled, "A Widening Circle," was presented in the form of a playlet. The characters were: Jean (a young Missionary), Mrs. H. Wells; Mrs. Jack (an experienced Missionary), Mrs. P. Utman; Anna Maria (a script writer), Mrs. G. Bradshaw; Rita (announcer for radio station), Mrs. S. Demorest.

Sale of Easter Seals Sponsored By The Stirling Rotary Club

This week hundreds of letters containing Easter Seals are being mailed out by the Rotary Club of Stirling, associated with the Ontario Society for Crippled Children.

Each person is asked to use these seals and return a donation to finance the crippled children work in the area.

When the average person thinks of Rotary, Kiwanis, Lions, Progress or any of the other service clubs in Canada, he pictures in his mind a hotel lobby, filled with conventioning businessmen and all out for a real good time. He sees grown men playing pranks at each other's expense like school boys. He can barely make out their smiling faces through the thick cigar smoke. And the chances are 100 to one against him ever imagining these "good-natured guys" could be remotely connected with a crippled child.

But they are. They are living examples of Easter Seals at work. And as one official of the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, who has worked with them for more than 32 years, put it, "The service clubs are the backbone of our work. Without them we could not function."

Actually the O.S.C.C. was formed in Windsor, Ont., in 1922 when the representatives of 10 service clubs met together because they were appalled with the number of uncared for cases of crippled children across the province. Today 195 service clubs — and new and all time high — will take part in the annual Easter Seal Campaign.

raising programme to finance clinical treatment, braces, wheel chairs, summer camps, cerebral Palsy centres and transportation for handicapped children. This year's Easter Seal Campaign extends to April 18th.

In the tiniest village or hamlet, as well as the large cities, enthusiastic service club members start their intensive mailing and canvassing programme months before Easter. This year they mailed 100,500,000 Easter Seals in order to raise at least $500,000.

As well as backing the Ontario Society for Crippled Children, many of the larger service clubs have flourishing rehabilitation programmes of their own and help to ease the constant pressure put on the Society's present budget and facilities. The Rotary Club of St. Catharines, for example, handles nearly all cases of crippled kiddies in Lincoln County. Its members have assisted in founding one of the two new summer camps for crippled children the Society owns, bringing the total to five.

Most of the orthopedic surgeons and physicians, who contribute their time and great skill in straightening out little limbs, are service club members, too.

Many a young man and woman walks proud and upright in the Easter Parade today because a Rotarian, a Kiwanian or a Lion helped fit him or her with braces or crutches when they were "just a crippled kid."

Robson Suggests Probe of Spread of Food Prices

Roscoe Robson (P.C., Hastings East) told the Legislature Monday he would not be averse to a probe of the price spread of agricultural products, and said he wondered why the price of canned goods had been going up in recent years while prices offered farmers dropped.

Mr. Robson spoke after J. B. Salsberg (L.P.P., Toronto St. Andrew) suggested an investigation into the price spread. Mr. Robson also said he thought the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph should make a survey to find out how people want their cheese packaged.

A Government fund to aid cheese marketing was suggested by Peter Manley (L. Stormont) who said producers need help to reach consumers.

Tax Refunds In District Will Be $1,500,000

More than half of all taxpayers served by the Belleville District Office of the Department of National Revenue will be receiving refunds this year according to statements released by the revenue department through the district offices.

Of the 75,000 returns filed at the Belleville office, some 40,000 refunds will be made according to tax officials' estimates. Total amount of the refunds is expected to be about $1,500,000.

Reasons for the refunds are alterations in the Income Tax Act enacted by parliament last year. Included in the changes were an 11 per cent reduction in the tax rate in force during the final six months of 1953; increase in the allowances for unusual medical expenses; an increase in the allowable income for dependants; the dependent child clause for those over 21 who are in "full time attendance at a school or university and whose total income does not exceed $750 per year." Interrupted employment, charitable donations; marriage during 1953, and increase in number of dependants, and deduction for allowable union dues are among factors which may also bring about a refund.

Expect Uranium Rush In The Bancroft Area

Bancroft may one day — maybe not too far hence — be the centre of an expansive uranium field, if latest reports in financial publications have the real lowdown.

According to a recent issue of The Financial Post, Newkirk Mining Corporation brought in two carloads of men from New Brunswick, and others from Little Long Lac, who staked 300 claims in separate sections, 16 to 40 miles south-west of Bancroft. The group operated during the Christmas holiday, and were inconspicuous during the operations so there was no competitive staking by outsiders.

According to the news release, an aerial survey was made by the company over an area of 1,200 square miles, flanking Bancroft Village. The survey showed practically every known radioactive occurrence in this region. The news article notes "that there is the distinct possibility that certain large areas previously believed granite, and inhospitable may be the hot uranium country of tomorrow."

The privately financed Newkirk Mining Corporation completed the large aerial programme over the area around Bancroft, Kinmount, north of Bobcaygeon, areas west of Apsley and west of Highway No. 62, on a scale heretofore only undertaken by governments.

If the findings are as promising as is expected, it may be North Hastings will be one of the richest spots in southern Ontario. — Bancroft Times.

Record year for Canada's fur goods industry was 1948 when output was valued at $66,384,000.

The ardent young man was very talkative. "You are the most beautiful girl I have ever seen," he murmured. "I long to hold you, to kiss your eyes, your ears, your lips — to whisper, 'I love you!' I —"

But she cut him short. "Well," she suggested, "I suppose it can be arranged."

WHAT OTHERS SAY!

THE MINUTES WERE READ BY THE SECRETARY (Wiarion Echo)

Those who submit reports of the meetings of organizations to The Echo could help themselves and us a great deal if they would follow a few simple rules. We are pleased to publish all such reports, as fully as possible. But when a report is twice as long as it needs to be, there is a good chance that it will be crowded out, or will crowd somebody else out.

Correspondents and others would be doing a good stroke if they omitted much of the garnishing that accompanies accounts of meetings. For instance, it is not exactly hot news that the meeting opened with prayer followed by a hymn. Nor is it of world-shaking importance that the secretary read the minutes of the last meeting, and they were approved. It would be news if the minutes were found to be full of errors.

It is delightful to those who are present when the hostess and assistants serve a delicious lunch, but it is not of gripping importance to the reader. And the fact that the meeting was opened or closed in the usual manner is of absolutely no interest to either those who attended or those who read about it.

If we had more space, we would not have news crowded out so often. And if we had less superfluous verbiage we would have more space. We appeal to our contributors to include only what is worth reading in their reports and not clutter them up with things that should appear only in the secretary's minutes. By doing that, we'd all be happier, the editor because he could print all the news, the reporters because their news was printed, not "crowded out last week."

Every pupil in our public and secondary schools should visit this interesting place and see the barrows of the Mount Builders who antedated the Indians; the trail of the Mississaugas and the early settlements of the United Empire Loyalists.

Carmel

Next Sunday will be historic in the life of the Carmel Church on the Rawdon Sidney Town Line. The renovated church will be re-opened and the new furnishings dedicated. The pews of the pioneers after seventy-five years of service have been replaced by tailored pews of three ply material manufactured locally. With wise promotion these pews could be the heralds of a new industry for Stirling. Mr. Hector Eggleton is the architect and builder.

Pulpit Apron

The beautiful pulpit apron executed by the craftsmen of the Dominion Regalia Co., bearing the historic crest of the United Church of Canada, is the gift of Mr. Wesley B. Steinhaver, son of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson Steinhaver and grandson of the first Methodist Missionary at Norway House. Rev. Steinhaver laboured in the mission fields of Western Canada from 1884 until 1932 and he was supported on all his Mission Fields by the ladies of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Bay of Quinte Conference of the Methodist Church.

"Vanguards of Canada," by John Maclean contains pictures of the Rev. Egerton Ryerson Steinhaver and his father, the pioneer Rev. Henry B. Steinhaver (1820-1884) and his wife and family and a thrilling record of this native founder of Missions.

The donor of the Carmel pulpit apron is a resident of Glen Ross and a member of the Carmel Church Choir. He will be in the historic group who will lead the praise at this re-opening service. Mr. Steinhaver is a war veteran and a descendant of the "Chipewyan" of the proud and peaceful Algonquians. His grandfather was a school teacher before becoming a Missionary. He was a graduate of Upper Canada Academy (Cobourg) now Victoria University (Toronto). This devoted Missionary opened the work in the Lake Superior and Hudson Bay areas as well as West of the Rock Mountains. To the original family name possibly Bird was added the name Steinhaver when a family of that name in Philadelphia bereaved by the death of their son become responsible for the education of the Rev. H. B. S.

Rev. H. B. Steinhaver was an interpreter of the Scriptures and a hymn book in the Cree language. He was responsible for at least 400 professed conversions on the frontiers, for effective work in limiting the Riel Rebellion, and opening the trails for those who were to follow him. His deportation work took him to both the United States and England as well as many important centres in Canada.

On Sunday, June 14th he preached twice, visited the sick and lay down never to rise again. Earlier in the month he had addressed the Conference at Brandon. On Sunday evening, June 29th he called his family to his bedside, exhorted them to be faithful to Christ and at his request they sang "The Gates Ajar."

There is a gate that stands ajar
And through its portals gleaming,
A radiance from the cross afar
The Saviour's love revealing.

Chorus:
Oh what depth of mercy - can it be
That gate was left ajar for me.
For me — for me —

That gate ajar stands free for all
Who seek through its salvation
The rich and poor, the great and small
Of every tribe and nation.

Press onward then, though foes may frown
While mercy's gate is open
Accept the cross and win the crown
Love's everlasting token.

Beyond the river's brink we'll lay
The cross that here is given
And bear the crown of life away
And love him more in heaven.

Toward the going down of the sun
The next day the soul of the Missionary went home. Dr. Maclean wrote: "He was one of nature's noblemen, gentle in demeanor, whose native dignity was not lost through association with pagans. He lived as a saint among men, moulding them for the new civilization and revealing to them the holy vision which leads to the altar of God. He was a benefactor of his race, a member of the church universal, and his work will abide through all the years. His memory and influence engraven on human hearts are more enduring than monument of marble or tablet of brass."

Rev. Egerton

Ryerson Steinhaver

This son of the Rev. Henry B. S. joined his father in the work and carried on with earnestness and zest, teaching, preaching and helping the people in their farming. He carried the gospel to native camps, erected schools, renovated old mission stations and organized choirs and singing classes. Egerton and his brother Robert were both college graduates. Of the present descendant who carries the significant name of Wesley, whose voice will be heard in the singing tradition of his father and grandfather at Carmel next Sunday more can be written at a later date.

Guests

The Mount Pleasant (Rawdon) Charge will maintain its fine tradition of close association by joining with the Carmel congregation in its re-opening services next Sunday. This gracious and generous action of our neighbours and their Pastor the Rev. R. R. Bonsteel is highly valued.

Pastoral Relations

The congregations of Carmel and St. Paul's have authorized their Official Board to take action respecting the Pastoral office.

M and M

The Missionary and Maintenance Dept. of the church was represented by Rev. R. J. D. Morris, B.A. B.D., Associate Secretary in three stirring messages last Sunday. Mr. Morris spoke at the morning and evening services at St. Paul's and in the afternoon at Carmel. He presented vivid word pictures of the distressing state of the world on the one hand and hopeful achievements at many centres at home and abroad on the other. The inroads of godlessness and communism were contrasted with the response to the Christian evangel in the building of church centres, the dispatch of clothing and cash relief overseas and the promising fruits of the agricultural and medical missions. Mr. Morris made a stirring appeal for a sacrificial appreciation of the world's needs and a sincere part in helping to meet them.

Trenton Man J. H. Van Meer Killed In Crash

A man was killed and a woman miraculously escaped when a fast passenger train crashed a sedan car at the level C.P.R. Presqu Shore Road crossing at Brighton, early Monday morning.

Dead is J. Harold Van Meer, 56, of Trenton. In Trenton Memorial Hospital suffering a broken right arm, several fractured ribs and a slight concussion is Mrs. Roy Howe, 42, Smithfield, a passenger in the car. Van Meer was thrown clear of the wreckage, 75 yards west of where the train screeched to a stop. Mrs. Howe, trapped in the front seat of the car, was conscious when the first help arrived. Part of her clothing had to be cut away before rescuers could move her to a waiting ambulance.

SAM POLLOCK

Early risers on Sunday are familiar with the voice of Sam Pollock, heard every week in "Postmark: U.K." on the CBC Trans-Canada network. Pollock and Arthur Bush are the two commentators on the program prepared by the BBC especially for expatriate Britons and other anglophiles in Canada specializing in interesting and topical "news from home," delivered in his inimitable North-country style, while Bush conducts his listeners on jaunts (via a tape recorded) to various parts of Britain and interviews men and women at work and in their homes.

Old Stamps Are Found Money

If we were to tell you that a young man put himself through college on the money realized from the sale of "old" postage stamps, you might doubt our veracity.

Yet in the January issue of Canada's finest philatelic magazine, Popular Stamps, printed in Cobden, a copy of which reached us this week, there is such a story and it was written by F. D. Rodgers, a native of a New England village near Boston, but for some years a resident of Ontario.

Rodgers' most interesting story is too long to print here, but it is a plausible story, and to get his start he didn't have to go outside his own home. Around the old house he found letters and papers which had accumulated throughout the years, and had been stored away. On some of those faded letters he found stamps dating back to 1851, three years over a hundred years ago.

Now there are homes in this district that date back to the early years, possibly not back a full century but at least three-quarters of that time. And in those old homes, in the attics, or some other place set apart for storage, there are all sorts of papers and letters of ancient vintage.

By what happened when Mr. Rodgers decided to learn what those old letters had in the way of stamps, the sale of which paid for his education, we would say to others, better have a look too. Take the time off and check over those old papers and if you find stamped envelopes take them to Mr. A. L. McCready, publisher of Popular Stamps, at Cobden, and he will give you an expert's opinion on their possibilities.

Don't do what we did. A trunk filled with family history, letters and everything, dating back to the 1830's when the family came into this part of the valley, was permitted to slip through our hands, and possibly ended up on the dump somewhere in the Douglas area.

Yes, old stamps are found money — have a look around your premises and see what you've got, you may be surprised. — Harry M. Moore in Eganville Leader.

STILL IMPORTANT

In 1953, after severe curtailment, textile manufacturing still ranked second in employment and second in gross value of production among all Canadian manufacturing industries.

Native of Springbrook Marks 100th Anniversary

Mrs. Urena Pinner, former highly esteemed resident of Marmora, celebrated her hundredth birthday at the Hastings County Home in Belleville on Thursday of last week.

In her honor there was a handsomely decorated birthday cake bearing 100 candles, which she cut. Wearing a special corsage for the occasion, Mrs. Pinner entered into the spirit of the occasion greeting friends and relatives who called to extend congratulations.

Although she lived for the greater part of the century in Marmora, she was born in the neighboring village of Springbrook. Mrs. Pinner is a member of the McWilliams family, associated with Marmora for so many years. A brother, the late Gordon McWilliams, operated the Royal Hotel there for many years.

Until a little more than a year ago, Mrs. Pinner was surprisingly active. But there came a day when she fell and broke her hip, to be confined since to a wheel chair. Up to an advanced age she had been nimble on her feet and was a dancer few could compare with. Her eyes, it is said, have not lost their old sparkle, and her hearing has not become impaired.

While in Marmora she was a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church and took her part in the activities of the Ladies' Guild. She was also one of the original members of Marmora Women's Institute. When the Plaza Theatre was opened a few years ago in Marmora, she was chosen to cut the ribbon. Her husband, George Pinner, died in 1915 at their home across the road from St. Paul's Church. Until she entered the county home in 1950 she and her son Fred with great attraction for each other, retained the home where friends received a warm welcome.

Mrs. Pinner, who is of short stature, has outlived six of her seven children. One daughter, Mrs. George Hartley, resides at Marmora.

Combines production of Registered and Certified cereal, flax, corn, bean, pea and soybean seeds in 1953 was a little larger than in 1952. Production of wheat was the highest in a number of years and that of soybean was much the largest ever recorded. Supplies are adequate for domestic needs.

Hello Homemakers! Fish is our meat. We can always be sure of pleasing the family with a variety of fish dishes. Wherever there is a store with a frozen cabinet for fish there will be our favorite fillet of sole along with salmon and halibut steaks, and an assortment for cubed haddock, cod perch etc. No doubt there will be fresh pickled and smelts next week since the fishing boats are in Lake Erie now.

By the way do not forget to add canned fish to your grocery list. If you make chowders and casseroles of canned fish select tuna flakes, flinnan haddie, pink salmon, fish cakes or pilchards. However, fish for salads should be red salmon, sardines, crabmeat or shrimp. Whatever way you serve fish a relish or garnish is needed. Perhaps you have some home-made beet-and-horseradish, tomato or cucumber relish or you may wish to buy an emergency bottle of Tartar sauce. On the other hand there's nothing better than a wedge of lemon and dried or fresh parsley.

Baked Fish in Foil

- 2 to 3 lbs. thawed fish fillets (perch, white fish, etc.)
- 1 cup salad oil
- 2 carrots, sliced
- 2 onions, sliced
- 2 tbsps. parsley

Place each fillet in centre of 12 inch square foil. Sprinkle each side of fish with oil, salt and parsley. Place a few slices of carrot and onion on top. Wrap fish neatly in foil, making a double fold at ends.

Place in a shallow pan and bake 25 to 30 mins. in preheated electric oven of 450 degs. Serves 4.

Nutri-Thrift Menu: Baked Fish, Baked Potato, Creamed Corn, Upside Down Cake and Milk.

Tuna Chowder

- 2 cans tuna
- 4 onions, sliced
- 5 potatoes, sliced
- 2 tsp. salt
- 1-2 tsp. pepper
- 3 cups water
- 4 cups milk
- 1 can creamed corn
- 2 tbsps. butter
- Place bay leaf

Drain oil from tuna into kettle.

Brown onions till golden, stirring often. Add potatoes, salt, pepper, water; cover and cook 15 mins. Add milk, corn, tuna and bay leaf; stir and hear 10 mins. Remove bay leaf; add butter and serve. Makes 6 or 8 servings.

Nutri-Thrift Menu: Chowder and Crackers, Cheese sandwiches and carrot sticks, Peach Pudding.

Scallop Salad

- 1 pint scallops
- 2 cups hot water
- 1 tsp. lemon juice
- 1 1/2 tps. salt
- 1/2 cup mayonnaise
- 1 cup celery, diced
- 1 cup pickle relish
- 1/2 cup milk
- Lettuce

Cook scallops (or cubed halibut) in boiling water to which lemon juice and salt have been added. Drain well. Chill. Cut into small pieces. Mix in the mayonnaise, celery, pickles and milk. Chill in electric refrigerator in covered bowl for 1 hour. Serves 6 in lettuce cups.

Nutri-Thrift Menu: Onion Soup, Scallop Salad with Cheese Dressing, Tomato Aspic, Potato Salad, Tea Biscuits, Canned Raspberries and Cookies.

QUESTION BOX

Mr. G. H. asks: At what temperature can I heat salmon in the can in the oven?

Answer: A sealed can of food must never be heated in the oven without first being punctured or the lid having been taken off then replaced in position. Drain off a tablespoon of the juice and heat salmon in preheated oven of 325 degs. for about 20 mins. Red salmon and sardines are often heated in this way to serve on toast. Toast is prepared by arranging sliced bread on rack of broiling pan and placing in oven with top element or "Broil" turned on. Allow 2 mins. or less for each side to toast when bread is 3 inches from heat.

Angling Seasons and Daily Limits 1954

For the information of anglers, fishing seasons remain unchanged in 1954. Also there is no change in daily limits of catch for game fish except for an adjustment in the case of speckled trout. Limits for speckled trout, quoting from new regulations, are "1 and an additional 14 per day, provided the additional 14, in the aggregate, weight not more than 10 lbs. This does not apply to Norfolk County."

Size Limits — For many years fish were measured from the tip of the nose to the center of the fork in the tail. New regulations, now in effect, rescind this practice and length measurements hereafter will be taken from the tip of the head, jaws closed, to the tip of the tail, lobes compressed. As one Officer commented, this will probably make it easier for fishermen to estimate the size of the one that got away. From now on, he says, the hands and elbow joints can be used to better advantage.

Under the new procedure, minimum lengths are as follows:

- Black Bass — 11 inches
- Yellow Pickerel — 15 inches
- Pike — no minimum except in Lake Conesecon, Prince Edward County, 11 inches.

For the information of non-resident anglers, the former Family License is no longer available. Some adjustment, however, has been made in the age limit for young fishermen privileged to fish without a license. For many years only those up to the age of twelve could fish without a license and providing they were accompanied by a parent who possessed one. The age limit has now been increased to seventeen under the same arrangement.

For complete information on fishing regulations in effect during 1954, anglers are advised to get in touch with the local Conservation Officer.

Convicted of Theft

of Crown Timber

Appearing before Magistrate Jackson at Northbrook March 1st, James Cuddy, of Shutt, was found guilty of theft of Crown timber under section 373 (1) of the Criminal Code and fined $10.00 plus $37.50 costs or the alternative of 30 days in jail.

The cutting was discovered by scaler J. I. McKenzie of the Dacre staff while making a timber inspection in Denbigh Township earlier in the winter. McKenzie traced the logs by removing stump sections and matching them with logs found at sawmills in the vicinity. Evidence was turned over to Constable Stout of the Provincial Police who completed the investigation with the scaler's assistance.

In passing sentence, Magistrate Jackson pointed out, that more than ever before, the Department has been endeavouring to stimulate awareness of the value of timber resources on which so many people depend. He stated that in cases of flagrant and continued violations there was no alternative but to exact penalties as in this instance.

Preparing for Fire

Season Underway

Notwithstanding the winter-like weather, Forest Protection Officials of Lands and Forests know from long experience that spring hazard conditions usually arrive pretty well on schedule. Maybe the danger will occur a little later this year, but in any case, once the snow disappears, weeds, brush and other surface debris dry out rapidly and a high fire risk can develop almost over night.

Preparations for the coming season have been underway for some time in the district with fire prevention efforts protection meetings with municipalities and getting equipment in readiness, being given chief attention.

Of decided assistance this year is the proposed allocation of a Beaver Aircraft to the Southeastern Region. The plane will be used for more intensive fire detection, transportation of fire fighters and equipment and being equipped with a loud hailer, can broadcast fire warnings from the air. With this device the pilot can reach large numbers of hunters, fishermen and berry pickers etc., warning them to be careful with campfires, and smoking materials.

More radio equipment will also be supplied to improve the efficiency of the communication system particularly between main headquarters and the District Office. At Dacre the new Chief Ranger Headquarters is nearing completion and this much needed improvement will also provide better protection facilities.

Efficient and all however, as the fire fighting organization may be, the amount of loss through fire and the expense entailed during the coming season, will in large part depend on the public. Prevent fires from starting and the waste will be slight. Approximately 85% of all fires that occur in the woods result from human carelessness in one form or another and can be prevented if the will to preserve and protect, is present. Making sure that campfires and smoking materials are "dead out" is one way to do it, and it only takes a minute or two longer to be safe.

Fire Fighting Training Courses

Two Fire Fighting Training Courses are being held by the Department of Lands and Forests early in April which should be of considerable interest to township officials and fire wardens locally. Both courses will last two days, starting at 10 a.m., one at the G. Howard Ferguson, Forest Station, Kemptonville, April 5th and 6th and the second at the Northumberland County Forest, approximately 12 miles north of Cobourg on Highway No. 45, April 7th and 8th.

Men taking part will be given training in fighting bush and grass fires as efficiently and cheaply as possible and in the proper use of equipment. In addition to Zone Foresters and other Lands and Forests personnel, the Department has invited any municipal fire wardens who would like some first class instruction to come along and take part. It should be a fine opportunity.

Live Day At A Time Says Mayo Professor

Avoid tension by tackling your problems "one at a time," says Dr. Walter C. Alvarez, in "Family Doctor," official publication of the British Medical Association. Dr. Alvarez is Professor of Medicine in the Mayo Foundation.

"One of the greatest curses of life today and one of the great breeders of nervousness," Dr. Alvarez writes, "is any work done under tension." Dr. Alvarez does not recommend shirking hard work, he simply recommends attitudes for facing work. He cites a number of examples of people who learned how to overcome tension without in any way cutting down on the amount of work done.

For example: "I knew a bank cashier who blew up whenever more than seven people lined up in front of him. As I pointed out to him, he could not possibly cope with more than one at a time. So why not do just that and stop wasting time and nervous energy worrying about the others."

Another savor of energy, Dr. Alvarez says, is Oiler's "trick," which he called burning your own smoke. "This meant we should not indulge in the

Mrs. Geo. Wood Is Hostess To Ivanhoe W.M.S.

The March meeting of Ivanhoe W.M.S. was held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Wood. The President opened the meeting with meditation and prayer. Business was discussed. It was decided to have a quilting and pot luck dinner on Thursday, March 25th at the home of Mrs. Keith Bray. Mrs. Elymer Rollins was appointed as delegate to attend the Presbyterian to be held at Nanapene on March 24th. The roll call showed 12 members and two visitors.

The meeting was turned over to Mrs. Sam Twiddy, group leader. Hymn 164 was sung. Meditation was taken by Mrs. Twiddy. The Scripture Reading was read by Mrs. Arthur Cooney. Doris Twiddy led in a prayer that was used at Five Oaks, which she attended. Mrs. Earl Benson gave a reading on "Prayer," Doris Twiddy, a reading on "Thanksgiving," and a reading by Mrs. Sam Twiddy, "That we may be able to comfort them which are in any trouble." Mrs. Arthur Cooney read a chapter on the study book. Hymn 493 closed the meeting. Lunch was served by Mrs. George Wood and Mrs. Harold Reid.

NEWS FOR THE BUSY FARMER

SEEDING RATES AND MIXTURES FOR HAY AND PASTURE

At this time of year some consideration should be given to the kind and amount of meadow seed which will be required for this spring's seeding needs. The kind of seed and the rate of seeding will depend on the type of soil and climate and also on the purpose for which the seeding is made, whether for hay or hay and pasture, says C. B. Dalton, Illustration Division, Central Experimental Farm, Ottawa.

Few grasses and legumes meet all requirements under all conditions of growth and all purposes or uses, thus the reasons for a mixture. Grasses usually are most productive in the spring and early summer, remaining relatively unproductive during the rest of the season. Legumes generally are better yielding than grasses and while they make best growth in spring they continue to grow later into the summer than the grasses to provide more aftermath for hay, silage or pasture.

In nine annual yields of a hay mixtures and rates of seeding test at the Mindemoya, Ont., Substation, mixture (a) seeded at the rate of 5 lb. of timothy, 6 lb. of red clover, 5 lb. of orchard grass and 2 lb. of alsike, gave an average yield per acre of 1.14 tons of hay, while mixture (b) seeded at 8 lb. of timothy, 3 lb. of red clover 3 lb. of alfalfa (Grimm), and 2 lb. of alsike, yielded an average of 1.80 tons per acre, or 58.1 per cent better yielding than mixture (a). Mixture (c) seeded at the rate of 12 lb. of timothy, 4.5 lb. of alfalfa (Grimm), 4.5 lb. of red clover and 3 lb. of alsike yielded an average of 2.03 tons per acre or 78.9 per cent better than mixture (a). Under these conditions the heavier seeding rate gave consistently better hay yield and certain species were better adapted than others, as for example the mixture containing timothy was better yielding than the mixture containing orchard grass.

While the seed used in the above experiment was commercial grade, in recent years new varieties of a number of grasses and legumes have been developed and selected, several of which have been tested at the Mindemoya Substation and here they have been found to be better than old commercial strains. Climax timothy showed a much heavier and leafier growth, with proportionately less stems than the commercial seed. Ladak alfalfa yielded 27.3 per cent more hay than Grimm alfalfa in pure seedings. Leon and Ottawa varieties of red clover showed greater yielding ability than did commercial seed. Parkland brome grass was superior to commercial brome in yield and leafiness. Reed Canary grass seeded on low poorly drained land, which is usually under water for several weeks in the spring produced dense leafy growth with stems reaching to a height of seven and a half feet. This grass is suitable for pasture, hay or ensilage. It is highly adaptable to low wet land, even thriving on areas which flood for periods of two to three weeks, producing an abundant leafy growth from early spring to late autumn. While reed canary grass does best on low wet soil, it gives good account of itself on high land.

FARM MECHANIZATION

In 1952 with a working force of only 15.6 per cent of the total gainfully employed, Canadian agriculture produced products for sale off the farm to the value of $2.8 billion. This tremendous output with a relatively small labour force has been made possible mainly through the use of modern farm machinery.

Sales of farm machinery and equipment in Canada in 1936 were $19.3 million; in 1940 they were $47.7 million; in 1950, $218.2 million; and in 1952, $250.3 million.

Reviewing Canadian farm mechanization in the February Economic Analyst, a publication of the Economics Division, Department of Agriculture, Ottawa, H. G. Shaw and R. C. Gilstorf point out that "the cumulative effect of the heavy volume of purchases of farm equipment and machinery in postwar years has increased the relative importance of that component of total farm investment. In 1936 land and buildings represented 76.8 per cent of the total investment on Canadian farms; implements and equipment, 10.7 per cent and livestock, 12.5 per cent. In 1950 the land and buildings component had declined to 65.9 per cent of the total whereas implements and equipment had risen to 14.3 per cent and livestock to 19.8 per cent."

Sales by provinces were about the same in 1941 as in 1951. Ontario was the largest purchaser in 1941 and ran a close second to Saskatchewan in 1951. Ontario purchases alone were almost double the value of those in Quebec and the Maritimes. As a group the Prairie Provinces were well ahead of any other combination of provinces. Their collective share represented 58 per cent of the total in 1941 and 60 per cent in 1951.

Most of the important increase in farm machinery has taken place since 1941, and between 1949-52 the purchases of diskers, weed sprayers, forage crop harvesters, hay balers, combines — and equipment for use with these machines and stock watering equipment were prominent.

Some indication of the growth in machinery on Canadian farms in twenty years is shown in the number of machines per 100 farms in 1931 and 1951. Automobiles increased from 44 in 1931 to 53 in 1951; trucks from 7 to 31; and tractors from 14 to 64. Grain binders declined by ten, from 59 to 49, but grain combines increased in number per 100 farms from 1 in 1931 to 15 in 1951. Electric motors increased from 3 to 32.

EGG SHELL QUALITY IMPORTANT

The keeping quality of eggs depends to a large extent on the quality of the shell. Any crack or imperfection in the shell results in rapid loss of interior quality. A good hard shell which can resist considerable shock is a highly desirable characteristic.

There are a number of factors which affect egg shell quality. The breaking strength of the shell is lower in hot weather. As egg production decreases, the breaking strength tends to decrease and as the bird approaches the end of its laying year, egg shell strength decreases. But two factors are of paramount importance in egg shell quality, says T. M. MacIntyre, Poultry Nutritionist at the Experimental Farm, Nappan, N.S., the inherited ability of the bird to produce good shells and the diet of the bird.

Experimental work has shown that it is possible to improve the quality of the egg shell by selective breeding. The hardness or thickness of the egg shell of the average flock can be considerably improved by a selective breeding programme, in which hens producing eggs of poor shell quality are removed from the breeding flock. Present knowledge indicates that by this practice most flocks can be improved to a certain extent, but ultimately a point is reached beyond which further improvement is practically impossible without affecting other hereditary characteristics.

Nutritionally, a lack of minerals and vitamins, particularly calcium, manganese, and vitamin D has an adverse effect on egg shell quality. In egg shell quality at Nappan it has been shown that the source of calcium, as well as the presence or absence of insoluble grit, has an effect on shell quality. Birds fed clam shells or oyster shells plus insoluble grit, produced egg shells of superior quality to those from birds fed oyster shells. The clam shells fed in this trial were harder than the oyster shells or limestone, and it is thought that the presence of a hard substance in the gizzard in the form of insoluble grit or a hard calcium compound favours the production of better egg shell.

In a study of different methods it was found that birds fed an all-mash ration produced eggs with stronger shells than did birds fed a grain and pellet ration. The explanation for this seems to be that the birds on the all-mash ration, being unable to pick and choose their food, received a more balanced diet.

Housewives' Eczema From Cleaning Agents

Strong cleansing agents in the home are causing an increasing incidence of "Housewives' eczema," according to an article by Matthew J. Brunner, M.D., in the current journal of the American Medical Association.

Synthetic detergents and many other known irritants such as ammonia water, hypochlorite bleaches, phosphates and abrasive powders can cause eczema, according to Dr. Brunner. Organic solvents in waxes and polishes also can be a contributing factor.

Mild dryness, redness and scaling are generally the first signs of this type of eczema. Fissuring and crusting can result from continued exposure to soap and water. This may lead to blistering and thickening of the skin. Extreme itching, burning and discomfort are common complaints.

Dr. Brunner said many patients treated recently have had an eruption on the hand for years. Few cases can be cleared up in less than four weeks, and some require to three months of treatment. Similar eruptions can be seen in bartenders, soda jerks and others whose work calls for use of household cleansers.

Dr. Brunner recommended avoidance of contact with irritating agents. Patients should do a minimum amount of wet housework, and should wear rubber gloves over soft cotton ones in order to permit the condition to clear up. Continued use of rubber gloves was recommended for cured patients as a permanent protective measure.

The History and Uses of Butter

This is the first of a series of articles on butter, its history and its uses.

Ever since the first pilgrim stepped ashore somewhat to the south of the present Canadian border some interesting additions have been made to the English language, particularly in the line of smiles.

But some of these brought along by the first adventures to head for this continent are still going strong, including expressions such as "sweet as butter." There's a good reason for that too, for the golden product of the dairyman's cow and his art has been around for a long time.

The first arrivals on this continent, of course, brought the butter-making art with them, for it had been part of the diet in Europe since the days when the belles put the bluing on themselves rather than in the wash or the latest soap discovery.

Butter, says the Encyclopedia Britannica, has been made in Britain since "the earliest days of British farming." And even Broadsides' most valiant courtiers didn't spend all their time waiting for the Romans to land, which means the dairy spread has been around for a long time.

At the present time in the United Kingdom something like 15 per cent of the milk produced in England and Wales goes into butter, but just the same the British have to import a lot. Quite a bit of it they get from descendants of these early adventurers who took their taste for and ability to make butter to the New World.

In the old days, possibly before the Earl of Sandwich came up with a valuable aid to gambling, the British used to like their butter heavily salted. Now their taste has changed, and they'll have a little less salt, thank you.

It's just possible this might be due to some degree to the influence of other Europeans, many of whom have a taste for sweet butter, which is unsalted.

In Canada, of course, there are all types of tastes, but most people here like butter with salt blended in. Increased immigration in recent years, however, has put more sweet butter on store shelves.

Traffic Laws And Safety

In most traffic accidents someone concerned has been violating one or more traffic laws. There is a definite relationship between traffic law violations and traffic accidents.

Out of every ten drivers in fatal accidents, three were violating speed law. Other violations included neglect of "right-of-way," improper passing, failure to keep to right of center line, disregard for a traffic sign, signal or officer and driving a vehicle in unsafe mechanical condition.

A good many pedestrian accidents are provoked by the pedestrian — crossing between intersections, children playing in roadway, crossing against signals, coming from behind parked cars — a misplaced confidence which presumes that the motorist (a) can see them, (b) is ready to stop, (c) can stop!

World Textile Wages Work Against Canada

During a recent discussion in the Quebec Legislative Assembly on the current difficulties of the domestic textile industry, the Hon. Antonio Barrette, Minister of Labour, said one of the main disadvantages of the Canadian industry was the difference in wages paid in the various world industries that compete on the Canadian market.

He said that hourly wage rates were "11 cents in Japan, 9 cents in India, 24 cents in Italy, 44 cents in Britain, and $1.05 in Canada."

Martha Says

The value of an education does not depend on the money it costs; nor can it be judged by the money it enables its possessors to earn.

NEW LOOK FOR NEW EMPRESSES

A scale model of two new 23,000-ton stream-lined ships now on order by the Canadian Pacific Steamships for transatlantic service is shown above making a realistic trial run in a British tank. The 21-Knot liners with rakish lines and echelon decks will bring a "new look" to Canada's 1,000-mile inland portion of the transatlantic rubber gloves over soft cotton ones in 1956 and 1957. Contract for constructing the second ship was let in Great Britain recently by A. C. FOLK SINGER MCCURDY

Ed McCurdy doesn't want to be hog-tied to the cowboy category but he's tall and mellow in the saddle as one of Canada's foremost ballad singers. While McCurdy doesn't own any dogs, he has collected several thousand ballads. He aims to preserve and encourage genuine folk songs. "Folk songs," says McCurdy, "should be sung person to person rather than roared to a mass audience." McCurdy enters many Canadian radio homes via "Trans-Canada Matinee," and other radio shows.
